Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The last year has been quite challenging for the whole world due to the pandemic however we have adapted to virtual meetings and the members of the church have continued to support the objectives of the church through attendance and by volunteering. The financial position of the church was good and this enabled us to do missions.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	We aim to be able to have a minimum amount of funds in our bank account to be able afford rents and still be operational.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	We aim to always have a minimum of £1000 in our bank accounts.
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	As good stewards of resources we think it is appropriate not to spend every money received because of the uncertainty of the future.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	Currently we are not in deficit.
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	We hope and pray to continue to serve and promote the Christian faith as long as the Lord gives the strength and the ability to do so.

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2023.

Responsibilities and
basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Calvary Chapel Portsmouth offers believers and those interested in the Christian faith a place of community and fellowship where they can explore, be taught and ask questions regarding the Christian faith. In addition, we hold public times of congregational worship. Many studies have been done on the physiological and health benefits this affords. Through our teaching of the Bible we are able help communicate valuable principles of love, respect, tolerance, morality etc. that has a practical benefit in daily life. In this way we are able to fulfil our obligation to provide public benefit by equipping those who join with us for life's challenges. As a result of COVID19 we have extended our meetings to now offer online as well as in-person meetings. This allows housebound and others who may not be able to join us in person to stay connected

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2022.

Responsibilities and

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2020.

Responsibilities and

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
