We provide pastoral care for people living in the local community and missionary and outreach work. In addition, we utilise our buildings as a community hub for the work of local charities, organisations and individuals.

To achieve our objectives, the Church is organised in the following way

The Minister

Church Council

Church Stewards

Pastoral Secretary

Church Treasurer

Paid Staff

The Church Council

CPD = Constitutional Practice and Discipline of the Methodist Church

Purpose

The Church Council has the authority and oversight over the whole area of the ministry and mission of the Church. Aims and methods, the determination and pursuit of policy, and the deployment of available resources are its proper responsibility.

The Church Council should meet not less than twice per year, at such dates as are most appropriate to the ongoing life of the Church, and its relationship with its committees and the Circuit. The Church Council act as Managing Trustees of the local property and are registered with the Charity Commission. If any legal matter arises, then only those members of the Council who are of the age 18 are eligible to be Trustees and are allowed to vote.

The Church Council will appoint annually all Church Officers as determined from time to time by the Council whether on the nomination of a committee or otherwise.

The Church Stewards

The Church Stewards are corporately responsible, together with the Minister, for giving leadership and help over the whole range of the life and activity of the Church.

The role of the Church Stewards is to serve the mission and ministries of the Church with prayer, creativity and vision.

By their service and example, they guide, encourage and support individuals and other groups within the Church

The Church Stewards will implement decisions made by the Church Council, and act between meetings of the Church Council in respect of all matters that are not under the purview of any of the Church committees.

In all instances, however, the Church Stewards will remain accountable to the Church Council.

The Church Stewards will, by mutual consent, ensure that at least one of its members is a representative on every Church Committee.

Church Stewards will be elected by the General Church Meeting to serve a rotating 4 year term.

Insofar as is possible, Church Stewards should accurately reflect the diversity of the congregation with respect to age, gender and race. However, as the appointment of Church Steward gives a seat on the Pastoral Committee Church Stewards must be at least 18 years of age.

Pastoral Secretary

To consider matters relating to Church membership.

To arrange training for membership

To recommend to the Church Council candidates for membership.

To make arrangements for services of confirmation.

To prepare a report on membership for the Church Council.

To encourage the practice of fellowship, through house groups and other group

To ensure the effectiveness of the work of pastoral visitors and house groups.

Year review and future goals:

Up until March 2020 the Church continued to host a weekly morning worship session on Sundays and regular evening services where the congregation and any member of the wider community could come together to share and explore their faith. There were also regular faith activities hosted in the week such as bible studies, as well the annual organ recitals. In addition Judith Stoddart in their position as City Centre Deacon at Central, continued to develop the ways the Church can serve the community throughout the week. This has included a weekly welcome session on Wednesday afternoon where members of the congregation come together to provide refreshments and fellowship with any members of the public; there being a particular focus on vulnerable groups such as the homeless community and the socially isolated.

Once the covid crisis began, the Church could no longer host these activities in person. Measures were taken however to continue worship and fellowship in a remote fashion, as well as pastoral care and funerary services. This extended to the support of Carecent a charity based on site, who continued to provide the key food provision for the homeless community of York throughout the crisis.

Pre-covid the Church also provided affordable community space, something which was identified as a need within the city centre community. In particular there are many charities who require space for training or larger meetings who simply could not afford hotels or other conference centres. The Church also offered hospitality to community classes and organisations such as the U3A and WEA, as well as individuals in the community. Post-covid the ability to host community activities was limited, but we managed to host critical education courses which were allowed under the rules and were managed with strict compliance.

The Church continues to pursue its goal of serving the whole community throughout the week, particularly with the ongoing difficulties of covid which has been hardest on the most vulnerable in society.

Financial statement:

We had £137,229 in payments and £120,399 in receipts, leaving a net loss of £16,830 at the end of this financial period. This loss was largely due to the covid crisis removing a majority of the Church's income for the last part of the year. We remain solvent and able to continue to invest in the maintenance of our historic building and facilities and to facilitate community activities. Our agreed reserve policy of £50,000, allowing us to meet our basic financial requirements, is preserved.
