Annual Report for Nostalgia Trust

Period: 1st April 2023 - 31st March 2024

Introduction:

The period from 1st April 2023 to 31st March 2024 has been a transitional year for Nostalgia Trust. While no project activity was undertaken, the trustees have been actively working to address essential administrative matters to ensure the charity's sustainability and compliance with regulatory requirements.

Operational Update:

1. Administrative Office Space:

- o Due to financial constraints, the charity could no longer afford its administrative office space as of 1st April 2023.
- o The trustees have been actively exploring alternative arrangements for housing the charity to minimize costs while maintaining operational efficiency.

2. Governance and Administration:

- o Significant time and effort have been devoted to addressing administrative matters and ensuring that the charity remains compliant with all legal and regulatory obligations.

3. Trustee Support:

- o The trustees remain committed to reviving the charity's activities once its administrative and financial situation is stabilized.

Financial Overview:

- Income: £0
 - Expenditure: £0
 - Cash in Bank as of 31st March 2024: £10,003.39

Work and Projects:

No project activity has been undertaken during the reporting period. This is due to the ongoing focus on resolving administrative challenges and planning for the charity's future operations.

Future Plans:

The trustees are committed to ensuring Nostalgia Trust can resume its mission to record and present local heritage and support communities through nostalgia-based activities. Once suitable arrangements for housing the charity are finalized, the trustees plan to reassess and restart project activities.

Conclusion:

While this year has been one of transition and reflection, the trustees remain dedicated to preserving the vision of Nostalgia Trust. We thank the Charity Commission and our supporters for their patience and understanding as we navigate these challenges and work towards a stronger future for the organization.

Sincerely,

[Prof Erinma Bell - Trustee]

Annual Report for Nostalgia Trust
Registered Charity No.1176814
Period: 1st April 2022 - 31st March 2023

Introduction:

The period from 1st April 2022 to 31st March 2023 has been a challenging time for Nostalgia Trust. We deeply mourn the untimely loss of our esteemed Chief Officer, Henry Hochland, who passed away on 18th October 2022. Henry's unwavering dedication and vision were integral to the founding and development of our organization. Our thoughts and condolences remain with his family and friends during this difficult time.

Operational Changes:

Following this unfortunate loss, Nostalgia Trust faced delays in various administrative processes, including the change of signatures on the bank account and the updating of contact details on the Charity Commission website. Despite these challenges, the remaining trustees have diligently continued their efforts to ensure the stability and progress of Nostalgia Trust.

Work and Projects:

Due to the unforeseen circumstances, all ongoing projects and activities were put on hold during the period from 1st April 2022 to 31st March 2023. We are committed to resuming our work and projects in the upcoming period, in line with the mission and values established by our late Chief Officer.

Financial Overview:

Cash in Bank to Date: £10,003.39

Income: None Expenditure: None Grants Gained: None

Future Outlook:

Moving forward, Nostalgia Trust is dedicated to continuing the legacy of our late Chief Officer, Henry Hochland, and fulfilling our mission to record local heritage, promote nostalgia, and collaborate with dementia charities to stimulate memories within our communities. We appreciate the support and understanding of all our stakeholders, supporters, and the public during this challenging time.

Sincerely,

Prof Erinma Bell MBE DL

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

1) to advance the education of the public in the history and heritage of the united kingdom, in particular but not exclusively by: a) the collection and preservation of material relating to social, economic and political history, incorporating the medium of oral history and reminiscence, through the creation of an archive which will be made available to the public; b) publishing and disseminating for the public benefit the useful results of research undertaken in furtherance of the object and publishing other materials likely to advance the object in the form of books, pamphlets or in other formats; c) arranging meetings, workshops, exhibitions and similar or related activities in furtherance of the above charitable object; and d) such other activities and means as the trustees see fit that furthers the above charitable object. 2) for the public benefit to promote the relief of elderly people by alleviating social isolation and loneliness, in particular by working with other organisations to provide facilities and services to support reminiscence therapy.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

During the year the charity was in an exploration and development stage, exploring how it could best deliver its objectives and ensure that the stories are shared in an accessible way.

Unfortunately the Chief Officer for the charity unexpectedly and sadly passed away. this has set back our planning and project delivery. it has taken a while to gain access to our charity commission account; our bank accounts and still we do not have access to our website.

Unfortunately the passwords were held by our Chief Officer.

In the meantime two of our Trustees have resigned, however, the two remaining wish to abd have agreed to continue our work in honour of Henry Hochland.
