1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is crucial for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific procedures that should be followed when recording transactions. It details the steps from identifying the transaction to posting it to the appropriate ledger accounts.

3. The third part of the document discusses the importance of reconciling the accounts regularly. It explains how this process helps to identify and correct any errors or discrepancies in the records.

4. The fourth part of the document outlines the steps for preparing the financial statements. It details the process of summarizing the data from the ledger accounts into the income statement, balance sheet, and cash flow statement.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining proper documentation for all transactions. It emphasizes that this is essential for supporting the entries in the financial statements and for providing evidence in the event of an audit.

6. The sixth part of the document outlines the steps for closing the books at the end of the accounting period. It details the process of transferring the balances from the temporary accounts to the permanent accounts.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of reviewing the financial statements for accuracy and completeness. It emphasizes that this is a critical step in the accounting process that should not be overlooked.

8. The eighth part of the document outlines the steps for preparing the final financial statements. It details the process of reviewing the data, making any necessary adjustments, and finalizing the reports.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30-09-2020.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
