The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	The principal source of funding this year has been regular monetary donations from within the UK this year.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	A key part of the fundraising strategy continues to be from in-kind donations – volunteer time and skills to leverage finance from within Ghana itself.
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	The principal risk is the lack of personnel to support the work in Ghana. Whilst there is currently a small team in Ghana committed to the vision of the project, the lack of financial support is hampering the progress towards delivery. As the profile of the project increases in the UK this is not being met with volunteer time, and there is still insufficient funds to employ staff. The trustees recognise the potential for burn out of the volunteers and is looking at contingencies to mitigate this.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	This year the community Christmas party at Atwima Kwanwoma was delivered by the Ghanaian community themselves – building on the social capital i.e. organisation and community engagement skills learnt from previous interactions with the project manager. More than 250 children and their families benefited from this activity. The purchase of chairs and desks and the contribution of educational resources has enhanced the learning experience of children attending the school by providing them with their own individual resources, an outcome from this has been an increase in the number of children now attending the school. We have continued to see individuals in Ghana raise their standard of living through the creation, selling of jewellery, and knitting, skills we had shared on an earlier visit.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Yet again we worked with Yahweh City Church to deliver the annual children's Christmas party at Atwima Kwanwoma. This year the event was bigger and was attended by over 500 children and their families. The demand for support has been increasing year on year. In addition to the sharing and distribution of food we were also able to give donations of clothing, toys and gifts to children and babies.

		Fundraising activities were organised through churches in England which resulted in donations of clothing and cash. This allowed us to reach more families in Ghana. We have continued to see individuals in Ghana raise their standard of living through the creation and selling of jewellery and knitting, skills we had shared on an earlier visit.

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To develop the capacity and skills of the members of the socially and economically disadvantaged community of the Ashanti region of Ghana in such a way that they are better able to identify, and help meet, their needs and to participate more fully in their own community. To advance the education of the pupils at Asantoa Model school in Kumasi, by providing and assisting in the provision of additional resources not required to be provided by the local education authority for education at the school. Developing Communities by bringing hope and transformation to people in poverty. Resourcing local partner organisations that work in the designated locations in the UK and abroad. Building community sustainability through user-led community enterprises. Support the growth of local community schools through the provision of materials and teaching expertise.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The organisation currently works collaboratively with local Churches and other organisations in the UK and Ghana. We work in partnership with Churches and officials to develop strategies that identify areas of need, and initiatives that will contribute to meeting these needs. This is done through lead agents, Chiefs, Elders and community leaders, who will hold consultations with citizens to secure their cooperation and commitment
Statement confirming whether the trustees have	Para 1.18	For the public benefit, the prevention or relief of poverty [or financial hardship] in Ghana had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit		and the UK by providing or assisting in the provision of education, training, healthcare projects and all the necessary support designed to enable individuals to generate a sustainable income and be self-sufficient.

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During the year volunteers worked with Yahweh City Church at Brofoyedru, in the Atwima Kwanwoma District of Ashanti Region of Ghana, West Africa. They organised a Christmas party for 512 vulnerable children in the community. A financial contribution from the Asantoa Foundation enabled the purchase of food and drinks for the Christmas meal. It also helped with the purchase of resources for distribution to the widows in the community. This impacted around 170 families in one community. This is the third such event and the elders, chief's community leaders and communities on a whole were very grateful for the help that they received. This activity was reported by three newspapers which served to highlight the ongoing needs of these communities who

		have little or no revenue.

Other		As a result of this event we will plan the following for 2021: A repeat of this event with the hope that we can meet the needs of more children through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The distribution of clothing and food to all ages in several areas in the Ashanti region of Ghana in 2021. • Supporting an established orphanage with toys. • Supporting a mother and baby unit with nappies pads and baby clothes

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The Charity has had little fundraising activity this year, the majority of its donations have been in-kind. In order to get a better understanding of the value to the organisations, Trustees will in future look to put a monetary value on the in-kind donations. This will help with determining the overall value and investment that the organisation has made.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	None as yet. The organisation is not yet in a position to determine a reserves policy. It remains an aspirational objective.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	None
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	See above
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	N/A
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	N/A
