2. Covenant and management

There are upto trustees:

Mr Qari M Asim

Dr Khalid Muneer

Mr Qari M Qasim

3. There is a management committee, which ensures all decisions, and activities are taken under its auspices. The Peace Matters objectives are:

To relieve and prevent poverty for the public benefit in the UK and such countries in Africa and South-East Asia as the Trustees deem appropriate by the provision of grants of money, the provision of items including but not exclusively food and clothing, and by payment for services such as essential housing costs, medical aid, and utilities.

4. Achievements

As it is seen in the enclosed documents the Peace Matters has been performing well in adhering to its objectives providing socio-cultural services and fund raising via its collection volunteers, teams, and other events.

5. Financial Review

The Peace Matters finances and performance have been strong with a reasonable system of record keeping and financial controls along with a good relationship with donors (the general Muslim population in the locality) who are set to continue financing the Peace Matters

6. Future Plans

The Peace Matters activities and financial support by its donors is envisaged to continue in the foreseeable future.

Signed on behalf of the trustees

Dr Khalid Muneer

PEACE MATTERS
INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S
REPORT ON THE ACCOUNTS

For The Year Ended 05 April 2025

We report on the unaudited accounts of the charity for the period from 6 April 2024 to 05 April 2025 set out on pages 3 to 7

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; you consider that the audit requirement of section 43(2) of the charities Act 1993 (the Act) does not apply. It is my responsibility to state, on the basis of the procedure specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43(7)(b) of the Act, Whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's Report.

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented in those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in a statutory audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's Statement.

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed overleaf):

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which record with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act

have not met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
- please delete the words in brackets if they do not apply.
