 - a. producing and/or distributing literature on Christianity to enlighten others about the Christian faith; and
 - b. the provision of, or assisting in the provision of, Christian outreach and ministry.
2. The prevention or relief of poverty anywhere in the world by providing or assisting in the provision of practical assistance or support to the poor.

Evangelism

HOC evangelism activities covered street pop-up outreach and materials distribution to network of street evangelists during the reporting period, as a result we were able to distribute over 2000 gospel materials.

Material assistance to the homeless

Material assistance has mostly been directed to the following charity organisations during the reporting period:

- Marylebone project (UK)
- Family Spirit (Orphanage in Uganda)
- Zoe Girls (residential/vocational home for destitute girls in Uganda)

Selection of material support provided in UK to the homeless through Marylebone project include;

- Regular supply of provisions (Socks, underwear, tinned food, breakfast cereal & toiletries)
- Welcome rucksacks provided to newly admitted homeless women at Marylebone project
- Provision of beddings and room furniture to Marylebone project

Support for Outreach ministries

- HOC maintain a modest monthly financial support towards missionary Christian outreach to the Jewish community via CWI (Christian Witness to Israel)

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Evangelism

HOC continue to undertake and support active street evangelism during the reporting period, as a result we were able to distribute over 2000 gospel materials.

Material assistance to the homeless

Most of the material assistance we delivered to the needy in the UK was channelled through our engagement with Marylebone project. These organisations provide frontline services to the homeless in London.

- Marylebone project is residential unit for homeless women in London. The hostel run by Church Army in central London has capacity to accommodate 112 women and play host to appx 50 non-resident homeless women who drop-in daily to shower and access other welfare assistance.

We also provided financial support to cater for the needs of orphans and destitute girls via the following organisations in Uganda.

- Family Spirit (Orphanage in Uganda)
- Zoe Girls (residential/vocational home for destitute girls in Uganda)

Below is a selection of achievements in relation to support provided during the reporting period:

Marylebone project:

- Welcome rucksacks all stocked with personal care items and toiletries provided to newly admitted homeless women at Marylebone project
- Provision of beddings and room furniture for homeless residents

Glassdoor:

- Provision of toiletries and dry food items to support the homeless at Christmas.

Family Spirit:

- We provided welfare support towards feeding and medication for the orphanage with residence of appx 100 children in Uganda.

Zoe Girls:

- We provided welfare support towards feeding, education and medication for the girls home-residence to approximately 25 teenage girls in Uganda.

Support for Outreach ministries:

- HOC provided modest regular financial support towards outreach ministry to the Jewish community via CWI (Christian Witness to Israel). Approximately £600 financial support to help with gospel resources and outreach to Jewish communities in UK and Europe.

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

HOC has a deliberate policy of velocity in expending funds received consistent with stated charity objectives.

However, as our commitments continue to expand, we have resolved to maintain adequate reserves to sustain our commitments for at least 3-months.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

- trustees’ consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Appointment of charity trustees

1. Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed [for a term of [three] years] by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.
2. In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, HOC trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of HOC objectives.

Information for new charity trustees

The charity trustees will make available to each new charity trustee, on or before his or her first appointment:

- a. Copy of the current version of HOC constitution; and
- b. Copy of HOC latest Trustees’ Annual Report and statement of accounts.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

1. For the public benefit, to advance the Christian faith in the UK and such other parts of the world as the trustees decide from time to time by:
 - a. producing and/or distributing literature on Christianity to enlighten others about the Christian faith; and
 - b. the provision of, or assisting in the provision of, Christian outreach and ministry.
2. The prevention or relief of poverty anywhere in the world by providing or assisting in the provision of practical assistance or support to the poor.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Evangelism

HOC evangelism efforts during the reporting period were primarily delivered via online channels and social media due to impact of covid.

Material assistance to the homeless

Most of the material assistance we offered during the reporting period to the needy was provided to Marylebone project. We also provided financial support to cater for the feeding and welfare needs of orphans and destitute girls in Uganda through 2 NGOs - Family Spirit Orphanage and Zoe Girls home in Uganda

Marylebone project is a residential unit for homeless women in London. The hostel run by Church Army in central London has capacity to accommodate 112 women and play host to appx 50 non-resident homeless women who drop-in daily to shower and access other welfare assistance

Selection of material support provided to the homeless through NSNO and Marylebone project include;

- Regular supply of provisions (Socks, underwear, tinned food, breakfast cereal & toiletries)
- Welcome rucksacks provided to newly admitted homeless women at Marylebone project
- Christmas gifts provided to the homeless residents at Marylebone project

Support for Outreach ministries

- HOC continue to provide modest regular financial support towards missionary Christian outreach to the Jewish community via CWI (Christian Witness to Israel)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

angelism

Evangelism

HOC evangelism efforts during the reporting period were primarily delivered via online channels and social media due to covid restrictions that were in operation for most of the reporting period. However, we were able to resume limited street evangelism in the later part of reporting period.

Material assistance to the homeless

Most of the material assistance we offer to the needy is channelled through our engagement with NSNO, Glasdoor and Marylebone project. They all provide frontline services to the homeless in London (NSNO offer temporary respite to homeless persons and process them into independent residential accommodation). We also provided financial support to cater for the feeding and welfare needs of Family Spirit Orphanage and Zoe Girls home in Uganda

Marylebone project is residential unit for homeless women in London. The hostel run by Church Army in central London has capacity to accommodate 112 women and play host to appx 50 non-resident homeless women who drop-in daily to shower and access other welfare assistance.

Below is a selection of achievements in relation to support for the needy

Marylebone project:

- Welcome rucksacks all stocked with personal care items and toiletries provided to newly admitted homeless women at Marylebone project
- Provision of 180 set of cutleries for homeless residents
- Provision of dressing gowns for the residents
- Provision of duvet & duvet covers for bedding

Glasdoor:

- Provision of food items to feed the homeless and toiletries

Chelsea Methodist Church:

- Provision of food items and clothing to support the needy & homeless in the community

NSNO:

- Provision of toiletries, food items and winter clothing to support homeless service users (shower gel, toothpaste, tooth brush, tinned food, pot noodles, breakfast cereal, ready frozen meals, winter coats, joggers, hoodys, socks, underwear, socks)

Family Spirit:

- Orphanage with residence of appx 100 children in Uganda, we provide welfare support towards food, education and medication for the orphans

Zoe Girls:

- Girls home for destitute and vulnerable young girls – residence to approximately 25 teenage girls in Uganda, we provide welfare support towards food, education and medication for the girls

Discover the Kingdom:

- Provided music equipment support to enable Discover the Kingdom to launch outreach ministry to students and young people in Bristol

Support for Outreach ministries:

- HOC provide modest regular financial support towards outreach ministry to the Jewish community via CWI (Christian Witness to Israel). Approximately £600 financial support to help with gospel resources and outreach to Jewish communities in UK and abroad
