Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
--	----------------	--

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.

Para 1.20

Achievements:

- TUTORING (Sciences, Mathematics and English)- Virtual sessions

We continue to provide tutoring support 3 Saturdays in a month to children in the community covering Mathematics and English literacy as well as Science for those in KS3 upward.

We operate both face-face and virtual sessions

- Holiday Well-being programme.

We were able to runs sessions for children on free school meal every holiday. These sessions are designed to help young people stay occupied, engaged, and continue to interact with others in the community during the school holiday.

The Activities include scavenger hunts, Lego games, Arts, crafts, sewing, jewellery making, Quizzes.

- Winter wonderland

This is a Christmas event for families started in December 2023. A fun filled packed well-being event for the whole family. Activities provided include the Santa`s workshop where children are able to make their own Christmas decorations and gifts for their loved ones. We intend this to be a yearly event.

- Community support programme.

The Community Support Programme, which was established during the COVID-19 lockdown period, continues to provide vital assistance to families in need. IMPACT-NOW supports households with food items purchased from partner supermarkets including Co-op, Waitrose and Asda. The charity now operates both a food bank and a food larder, alongside additional services such as mental health check-in calls, direct work with adults, befriending support, and a Household Essential Support Service.

During the year, the charity supported 3,763

		households with food bags, reaching a total of 9,770 individuals comprising adults and children. In addition, through the Household Essential Support Service, 2,529 households received household essential items. These households included families with registered disabled members, pensioners and children. Items provided included blankets, winter packs, coats, clothing and towels. The charity also provided 72 Christmas dinners to families in need and distributed Christmas presents to 110 children within the community. During the year, the charity purchased a van to support its community operations. The van has strengthened the delivery of the Community Support Programme by enabling the transportation of food items, household essentials and other resources, improving the charity's capacity to reach families in need efficiently and consistently <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Social Media IMPACT-NOW continues to maintain a strong presence on social media platforms including Facebook, Instagram and TikTok, with over 1,500 likes across its Facebook pages. The charity operates two Instagram pages: one dedicated to the organisation's general activities and the other focused on the Youth@Risk of NEET project. The charity continues to receive positive feedback and support from parents and families within the community, reflecting the value and impact of its services.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
