Independent examiner's report to the Good Goal Orga for the year ended on 1 May 2024

Report to the trustees of

Good Goal Organisation

On accounts for the year ended

15 March 2025

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees have prepared the accounts and determined that this year, under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011, an audit isn't necessary, but an independent examination is. My duty is to inspect the accounts per section 145, follow Charity Commission's general Directions under section 145(5)(b), and report any notable findings.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention;

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
