GISLINGHAM SILVER BAND CHAIRMAN'S REPORT 2025

2024 The band performed at 10 engagements last year at Mellis D Day celebration and remembrance , Walsham Le Willows open gardens , Pulham Market Fate , Wickham Skeith Church Fund Raiser , Botesdale Remembrance Service , Hartismere House carols , Wickham Skeith Christmas Pudding Stir up , Christmas Music Night Gislingham , Thornham Magna Carol Service and Carols at Mellis Tavern . We were still unable to lead parades on remembrance Sunday. I am glad we could play seated at Botesdale and provide cornet players for the Last Post there and also at Dickleburg in the morning. We have 19 members in the band and encourage new wind players of all abilities to join us .

The trustees have had a disabled toilet pod installed with a pad and path at the side of the band hut . Thanks to Terry for overseeing the installation . Lastly would like to thank Adrian as Musical Director for arranging music for us and striving to improve us each week. Thank you every one in the band and those who support us and hope we all have another enjoyable year .

GISLINGHAM SILVER BAND CHAIRMAN'S REPORT 2023

2020 We had to stop band practice and all engagements because of Covid 19

2021 The Trustees decided to repair the band hut because we were no longer able to practice in the school. Terry agreed to project manage this. I would like to thank Terry for his time and hard work he has put in to renovating the band hut. I also thank Wayne for giving his time to update the electrics and I donated the extra parts that were needed. I thank Ken who gave a donation for the new flooring and thank all the volunteers for painting and cleaning. The only thing was to have an outside contractor repair the porch roof. We resumed practising in the summer six, at a time and increased as soon as we were allowed. The band marched at Botesdale for the Remembrance parade and played at a carol service at Thornham Magna but had to cancel playing at Yaxley Cherry Tree because of rising COVID numbers.

2023 The band performed at 10 engagements last year but it was the first year I can remember that the band was unable to lead parades on Remembrance Sunday. I am glad we could provide cornet players for the Last Post and I would like to thank them. The trustees changed the signatory's on the bank account it took over 14 months to resolve but we got there in the end. This however led to me having to pay bills from my own account I ended up paying £854.38 and will need to claim this back. More work has been done on the band hut we have added a mezzanine floor as a store for cases and unused instruments. I think this is a big improvement and would like to thank Terry again for his input. Lastly can I thank Adrain as Musical Director for arranging music for a smaller band and trying to improve us each week. Thank you every one and I hope we all have an enjoyable year.
