Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

A number of families have completed various levels of the John Muir Award.
We explored a number of ways to achieve IGCSEs for the older children. We have compiled an up to date document for families to refer to for guidance in regards to preparation for the exams and exam centers. In view of children sitting their exams in 2022.
We have liaised with the Portsmouth Centre for them to come to Rackham and deliver the Duke of Edinburgh sessions for the following year.
The children worked together and put on a play based on the book called 'The Guardian Lions' written by one of the parents.
History month saw the group travelling further afield discovering the history of our country, it was a great success to be repeated.
