Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The relief of poverty in England and Wales by providing grants, items and services to individuals in need and or charities, or other organisations working to relieve poverty.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

During the year, we have continued with distribution of hot meals, grocery and other items to homeless, needy and vulnerable people.

Winter items such as blankets, sleeping bags & heaters were distributed to the homeless, needy and vulnerable people.

At times, items were delivered to vulnerable and disabled people who were unable to travel to collect, due to personal reasons.

The food distribution point has been a success with many homeless and needy people continue to benefit from food, grocery and other items.

Hot meals are donated weekly provided weekly on sundays along with hot drinks snacks, groceries and other items.

Emergency food and other items were arranged/delivered to those who are not able to travel.

The Trustees of One Unity Aid are aware of their legal requirement under the Charities Act to have regard to the commission's public benefit Guidance. (PB1, PB2 and PB3).

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- ✓ policy programme related investment;
- ✓ contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During the year, our charity have continued to distribute food, toiletries and other items to homeless and needy people on a regular weekly basis.

We also continued supporting other needy people who are facing difficulties with food and groceries due to high cost of living, job losses.

We continued to receive donations of food and other items from local community. This was distributed and also collected by the needy and homeless people regularly.

During the year, we continued to distribute weekly hot meals to the needy people from our food distribution point.

We also arranged extra grocery items donations from local businesses.

The food distribution point continues as a focal point for homeless and needy people to collect hot meals, snacks & grocery items on weekly basis.

With the cost of living affecting many people, demands of food and other items were high. We were able to meet this demand with the continued support from local businesses and community members.

We also negotiated with local businesses to offer discounts on grocery and meals for needy people.
