Para 1.20	The charity's current primary activity involves developing educational Islamic mobile applications and disseminating them to the public, worldwide, for free. 2021 has been a challenging year for many due to the pandemic and rising inflation. However, by the grace of The Almighty, we have made some exemplary achievements. We focused mainly on team building, foundation, and stability. From expanding our team to making our software better for our large worldwide user base, 2021 has been busy at Greentech Apps Foundation. Key milestones for 2021: With a solid team in place, 2021 has been the time for growth. We have implemented a number of long-requested features and solved some of the most critical issues for our users. At the same time, we have made huge strides in a number of areas, for example, we have a new improved website with a better support page, utilized our own backend infrastructure for the sync mechanism of user generated data such as bookmarks and notes, and made our apps available on more platforms. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Improved User Experience We always put the user experience at the top of our priority list. We made significant improvements in several features of the Quran app for our valued user base. Likewise, we conducted specific research to identify the most important features to work on for 2021 and settled on the Library (bookmarks and notes) and the Planner features of the Quran app to be improved. We made the user flows smoother, less complicated and improved the overall design of these features. While improving these features, we considered requests from both our newer and long-term users.

		For our Deen Quiz app, we have listened to our users and brought the long-requested offline feature and English language mode to the app. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Improved website In order to ensure a high quality user experience across all our applications, we strive to listen to the user feedback. With that in mind, we revamped our existing website. The Help & Support section and the Contact sections were updated to make sure users can seek any help they need and can provide us feedback through an easy, streamlined process. We also improved the design of the website, search experience and overall performance. At the same time, we upgraded the Donation section for users to find relevant information faster before making their donation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • New announcement section Our apps now have a dedicated announcement section so that users can receive all the latest news, updates and notifications inside the app. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • User Profile and Library Sync We have built a user profile system into our Quran application. The users will be able to sign up, and sync their bookmarks and notes and do not have to worry about losing them. Users can also sync their data across multiple devices. We have made several changes to our backend server infrastructure to allow for upcoming community-engaging features. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reaching More Platforms To facilitate our goal of making our apps available in more platforms, we have launched our Quran app on macOS. Users can now run the Quran app on Apple Mac devices.

		Also, we have released our Hadith collection app for iOS and macOS users with full functionality, previously it had limited features. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Other Notable Mentions We have added a number of new translations of the Quran (of different languages) and new reciters. This will make understanding of the Quran accessible to users from a variety of languages. We also have added the “Compare Isnad (chains of narration)” feature in the Hadith Collection app. This is an advanced feature that will help students of Hadith to easily compare the chains of narration of the various Hadith. Goals for 2022: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Being more organised We will strive to keep on improving our organisational structure and processes. The focus will be on having a visual scorecard for our KPIs. This will enable us to keep a bird's eye view of the key metrics. We will plan training modules for staff, individual career ladders, and hackathons to increase engagement. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hearing more from the users and solving their problems We can only solve the problems that we are aware of, and users are best suited to identify issues in our products. the best people to find the problems of the products are the users of them. We are planning to further improve the user feedback process by incorporating a dedicated Customer Relationship Management tool. This will make it easier for users to share their problems and ideas.
--	--	--

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • User stats for more engagement Our Quran app will have a new feature related to reading analytics. When a user sees how much s/he has engaged with the app and how much they have benefited, they will be motivated to utilise the application even more. This will help them develop a learning habit. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Solving new problems Next year we are set to bring a brand new Seerah (history) application for the people. At the same time, we are planning to tackle some new issues, such as improving the search experience and making the Hadith app more intuitive by presenting interconnections between different Hadith. We are looking forward to improving our products and processes to better cater for our large, loyal user base.
