About us:

Ibiyinka-Macaulay foundation is a registered charity (no 5119988) named after the founder, an amputee himself after a lifechanging illness. The charity came into existence on the 11th of May 2018. To create empathy, not sympathy for the disabled, amputees and the limb impaired. you can make someone's life brighter again after a lifechanging illness resulting in disability.

Aims

To educate people in understanding and awareness of those who are disabled. We aim to give talks to schools and learning establishments. To organize challenges, conferences, lectures, sporting events and competitions including fundraising events. Through events like these, the disabled community will come together and raise awareness of their issues and bring a measure of satisfaction through success and achievement. To offer education and emotional support for disabled persons in the UK and Nigeria. To bring awareness and understanding by giving presentations, organizing events and educating professionals through lectures and seminars. To create independence through counselling, fitness, sport and music. To offer help and support and offer a service by phone or visits to clients, families and professionals. To offer encouragement and assistance for fitness, sport, dance and music activities to encourage and assist the disabled and amputees to get back into sports and other fitness activities to keep fit, to maintain a healthy lifestyle for a harmonious and stress-free environment. To offer a counselling service by professionals and specialists offering a service of dedicated counsellors who specializes in issues relating to people who are adjusting to disability.
