Trustees report

Governance structure and management

Timu Rafiki is a registered charity in England and Wales was incorporated as charitable incorporated organisation in 22 May 2018.

Trustees are appointed by the members of the board, who are the current trustees, for an initial time of three years. Trustees receive an induction into the organisation upon appointment and are appointed based upon their skills and what they are able to offer the organisation.

The trustee board supports the governance, strategic direction and financial responsibility of the organisation and meet throughout the at regular intervals.

The trustee board is supported by a number of operational volunteers who support the day to day operations of the charity.

We have previously worked with the Kenyan Scout Association, a registered charity in Kenya, to support the development scouting in Siaya County in northwest Kenya. As a result of the pandemic we have not done so during the financial year.

Risks are managed by the board of trustees through regular updates at trustee meetings and since the charities inception several policies have been implemented and drafted to support the organisation.

Related parties and conflicts of interests recognised through trustee declarations annually and consider it as a standing board meeting agenda item.

Objectives and activities

The objectives of the charity are to support scouting in Kenya which has, in the past, been in a partnership with the Kenyan Scouts Association. Particular focus has been given in Siaya County to the development of a local campsite for use by young scouts locally and this has also benefited members of the local community.

The charity also supports the development of young people in the UK through expeditions to Kenya and supporting the enrichment and development of young people through UK based programmes where they are unable to travel to Africa. This has not been possible due to travel restrictions as a result of the pandemic.

The trustees have reviewed the Charity Commission guidance on public benefit entities and believe through the following measures they meet the applicable definitions.

- working in partnership with the Kenyan Scout Association to develop the campsite in Siaya County for young people in this region of Kenya.
- supporting Expeditions of young people from the UK to travel to Kenya to understand and experience Kenyan culture.
- supporting UK based experiences for young people unable to travel to experience in order to understand and experience Kenyan culture.

Achievements and performance

In March 2020, The World Health Organisation declared the outbreak of COVID-19 a global pandemic. This has continued to halt progress on our work in 2021 with no expeditions to Kenya from the UK to support.

We regularly receive updates from local scouts on the impact of the pandemic on the local area in Siaya. We continue to work closely with the Scout leaders at the Siaya site to support them where possible.

Financial performance

Throughout the year the charity has received income of £2,476 and has recognised expenditure of £3,334.

Throughout the year we have been supported by a number of individual donors. We are thankful for all of our donors who have donated throughout the year and for their continued support for the charity's activities. We do not work with external fundraisers and donations are recognised as they are received. Expenditure has related to support individuals in Kenya who support Timu Rafiki projects.

We continue have healthy cash reserves at the year end to continue to support the causes planned for future financial years.

The charity maintains reserves to meet its liabilities as they fall due and continue to operate for a minimum of 12 months.

Risk Management

The trustees consider the risks associated with the organisation and perceive the ongoing global pandemic to be the largest risk facing the organisation. This is an operational risk that we are unable to fulfil our UK engagement through local events and international travel as a result of government restrictions on the movement of individuals.

Additional restrictions in Kenya have reduced our ability to make progress in understanding our next projects.

The Trustees continue to develop internal policies and procedures to further support the internal governance landscape and in turn reduce risk for the organisation.

Future periods

At present there are no planned international trips which we are supporting. As international travel resumes we will look to support any upcoming trips.

The Trustees continue to look at new ways to support local scouting in Kenya throughout the pandemic.
