I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/24.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Every member of the Board of Trustees has been affected personally by CLL, either as a patient or through a close personal relationship with a patient, and accordingly is well placed to judge the needs of CLL patients and their supporters. With the assistance of dedicated part time members of staff, every individual Trustee is both directly and heavily involved in the delivery of the support services that the Charity has to offer. As it has moved on from the immediate challenges of the Covid-19 pandemic, the Charity has: - <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Reintroduced in-person member conferences as well as continuing to provide online webinar presentations. These presentations continued to be fronted by many of the leading experts in the field of the treatment of CLL. 2. Continued its close collaboration with the UK CLL Forum, thus helping the Forum to bridge the gap between Scientists, Clinicians and Patients. 3. Continued its work with the Blood Cancer Alliance and with Cancer52 to promote the interests of those suffering from blood cancers in general, and from CLL in particular.
---	-----------	--

		4. Continued with the development and roll out of its Support ACT programme, offering users access to guidance and support to help improve the well-being of CLL patients and their immediate supporters. 5. Continued to maintain a telephone helpline service that is available to offer immediate support and guidance to CLL patients and their supporters. 6. Continued to participate in partnering arrangements with major pharmaceutical companies designed to offer those companies key insights into the way in which treatments for CLL impact on the lives and wellbeing of patients. 7. Continued to benefit from donations and fundraising activities that were undertaken by its supporters. 2024 was the 20th Anniversary of CLL Support and our Challenge 20 encouraged members to undertake activities and raise funds for the Charity 8. Continued to benefit from funding provided by the pharmaceutical industry.
