Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the Christian religion for the benefit of the public.

To provide relief and comfort to the sick, aged, poor or disabled for the public benefit.

To advance such charitable purposes (according to the law of England and Wales) as the trustees see fit from time to time.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The trust supports the work of Network Church (Maghull) which has conducted Christian services in residential care homes for over 15 years.

Ecumenical Christian worship services have been provided for 'church' groups in four residential care homes and in a day centre, which are open to the public.

Grants to national and international charities, overseas projects, and individuals were given.

The trustees are satisfied that the charity has met all its obligations in respect of benefits to and for the public good.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Grant Making

The trustees apply the funds of the John Stratford Coxon Charitable Trust at their discretion and in accordance with the charitable purposes and objectives of the charity.

The trustees consider the distribution of beneficial grants in accordance with the charitable purposes and objectives. Any decision whether to award a grant remains solely the responsibility of the trustees.

The trust has no investments at this time.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Despite severely restricted activities, our income has remained good and we have been able to continue to support all of the organisations and individuals [\[thatWF1\]](#) we supported in 2021 and gave to two other international appeals. We anticipate that we will be able to maintain this area of our work going forward.

Whilst it is unlikely that the Trust will be able to resume core activities in the near future. The Trust will continue to look at possible future activities that may be undertake in line with our aims and objectives.

We continue to pray for all those who are, and have been, affected by the pandemic and recent world events and for those who have responsibility for the care and wellbeing of so many throughout the world.
