EVA'S ANGELS

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES for the Year Ended 31 March 2023

Our Mission

1. To relieve the needs of families who have a child who is terminally ill with cancer, or are a bereaved family who have recently (in the last three years) lost their child to cancer, in particular by but not exclusively by the provision of short breaks and holidays;
2. To relieve sickness and promote and protect good health by raising awareness of and providing funding for research into the treatment of Diffuse Intrinsic Pontine Glioma (DIPG) and other terminal childhood brain tumours.

Our Story

Eva's Angels was formed in memory of five-year-old Eva Giles by Eva's parents, Dean and Emma Giles on 4th June 2018. Eva tragically passed away on 7th April 2017 following a short illness with a rare paediatric brain tumour called Diffuse Intrinsic Pontine Glioma (DIPG). DIPG affects thirty to forty children in the UK every year, and is an illness desperately underfunded. Eva was offered palliative radiotherapy on the NHS, which temporarily shrinks the tumour and extended her life by a few months. Dean and Emma, desperate to save Eva's life, contacted doctors all over the world trying to find a treatment, or medical trial, showing some signs of success. Unfortunately, DIPG still remains untreatable, and incurable. The pons is located above the brainstem in the centre of the brain, and the tumour wraps itself around healthy tissue cells making it impossible to remove. After diagnosis, children typically survive nine to twelve months, and the average age is five to ten years old. Eva died a year after diagnosis and Eva's Angels was formed so that her spirit and memory lives on.

Our Facilities

Having been through this journey, we understand the importance of family support. We understand how utterly exhausting the fight against cancer becomes for the whole family.

The Eva's Angels caravan is a six-berth, situated right by the beach on Seaview Holiday Park, Whitstable. It provides a place to simply enjoy each other's company and live in the moment.

for the Year Ended 31 March 2023

Fundraising and Communications

Eva's Angels relies solely on fundraising and donations for the maintenance and running costs of the caravan.

Following the effects of Covid lockdown and how it impacted on our fundraising opportunities, and the number of holidays we were able to offer, 2022 saw the return of events and an increase in the number of referrals to the Eva's Angels caravan. We are now also working very closely with the Young Lives Vs Cancer teams at Royal Marsden, Great Ormond Street and Kings College. To date we have now had 121 families to stay in the Eva's Angels caravan. This is a huge achievement for us, and we will continue to work closely with the hospitals to offer as many respite breaks to families as we can.

This year we focused some of our fundraising efforts on restricted funding for a new co-founded Clinical Trial called CARMIGO, which will recruit newly diagnosed DIPG patients in September. Working with The Brain Tumour Charity, Abbie's Army, The Azaylia Foundation and other parent led charities, and raised £10,000 to part fund this trial.

"Thank you for everything..."

Other fundraising events included: -

- Goodwood Track Day – A huge thank you once again to Creative FX and Lusso Prestige for organising the annual Eva's Angels track day in April;
- Brighton Marathon – this year we had 2 Eva's Angels runners;
- Whitstable 10K;
- Saxon Shore Relay – a team of 4 runners who proudly represented Eva's Angels in June;
- Eva's Angels Ultra Marathon – a gruelling 50 mile run along the coast via Sandwich, Margate and Reculver towers back to home.

"This trip was so so different to the first one. I couldn't believe she was back here in good health and upbeat spirit. Never thought we would see the day....."

".....We all managed to relax and unwind a bit. Many thanks again for all that you do."

for the Year Ended 31 March 2023

Our Future Plans

- Purchase a second Eva's Angels holiday home or bigger home in 2024;
- Continue to work with hospitals and cancer charities;
- Expand the number of local attractions tickets to families staying in the caravan;
- Expand the online Eva's Angels branded merchandise range with caps, running tops, cycle tops and branded hoodies;
- Continued online presence via @evasangelscharity on Instagram and Facebook. Link Twitter account to website.

Risk Assessment and Management

The Board of Trustees holds overall responsibility for Risk Management for the Charity, and reviews the major risks to which the charity is exposed. Consequently, where appropriate, systems and procedures will be established to manage the risks that the Charity faces, as it continues to grow.

Face to face meetings are held with Trustees, and regular participation in meeting by electronic means. Major risks are discussed in meetings, alongside fundraising opportunities, marketing, and the general effectiveness of running the charity.

Currently, Eva's Angels is run on a daily basis by Emma Giles (Eva's mum, and co-founder of Eva's Angels) alongside Trustees' Dean Giles (Eva's dad, and co-founder of Eva's Angels), Ian Giles, Richard Callanan and our newly appointed trustee Kate Wiggins. All trustees bring a set of unique skills, and business experience. New trustees are appointed on the basis they have volunteered for the charity, or have shown considerable commitment and dedication to the cause. Kate Wiggins, is our newest member of the team. Kate has run her own business for many years, and is a key figure in the local community. She has previously held fundraising events for Eva's Angels, and will be a huge asset in the growth of the charity.

The board of Trustees considers time restraints to be one of the main risks to the charity's growth, with all of the trustees having full time employment elsewhere. To date this has worked well with the co-founders managing the bulk of the work, however, the workload will increase with the purchase of the second caravan, and the increase in the number of family referrals. With the expansion of Eva's Angels this will also put considerable pressure onto fundraising so that we are able to effectively maintain two holiday homes. Staffing levels and fundraising will be the two key areas that are constantly monitored by the Board of Trustees.

Reserves Policy

The Board of Trustees has examined the Charity's requirements for reserves in the light of the main risks facing the Charity. The Charity's reserve policy is such that the Charity should hold a minimum free reserve of equal to 3 months operating expenditure. This would equate to a minimum free reserves' amount of £7,000 held by the Charity at any time.

In terms of large-scale specific expenditure (e.g. A second caravan), separate specific reserves will be held, which will accrue until the required amount has built up for the project. No free reserves will be used for this purpose.

Trustee Statement

The Charities Act 2011 requires Trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charity for that year.

In preparing these accounts the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies, and then apply them consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy, at any time, the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Charities Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
for the Year Ended 31 March 2023

1. STATUTORY INFORMATION

Eva's Angels is a charity registered in England and Wales. The charity's registered number and registered office address can be found on the Company Information page.

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 (the Act) and the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP). The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Financial Reporting Standard Number 1

Exemption has been taken from preparing a cash flow statement on the grounds that the charity qualifies as a small charity.

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Plant and machinery etc.	20% on cost
--------------------------	-------------

Fund accounting

- Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity.
- Restricted funds are subjected to restrictions on their expenditure imposed by the donor or through the terms of an appeal.

Incoming resources

All incoming resources are included in the statement of financial activities when the charity is entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. The following specific policies are applied to particular categories of income:

- Grants and contract funding payments are recognised when receivable;
- Investment income is included when receivable.

Resources expended

Expenditure is recognised on an accruals basis as a liability is incurred. Expenditure includes VAT and is reported as part of the expenditure to which it relates:

- Costs of generating funds comprise the costs associated with both the costs of attracting the income and those of providing the facilities to generate the income.
- Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

We applied for the 'Blue Token Scheme' where shoppers can choose their own chosen charity. Due to Covid restrictions, this scheme was put on hold, but Tesco still gave £1,000 towards another caravan

CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS' INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES
ON THE UNAUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF
EVA'S ANGELS

We report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 31 March 2023, which are set out on pages 6 to 11.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed. Having satisfied ourselves that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is our responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to our attention:

(1) which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met; or

(2) to which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
