Helping London's Homeless

Our Trustee's Report for The Year Ending 31 March 2021

This Year has been a different Year for us at Hands on Hand Out, due to the Pandemic we have had to change the way in which we carry out our Outreaches.

We still take out the essentials to our Homeless friends need every Sunday. We now stay in the Car Park at St Pancras Church and our Homeless Friends come to us to collect their Essentials. (We do still visit a few of our regulars that are unable to make it to us).

We still see on average 100 homeless people every Sunday, and we give them a hot Meal, sandwiches, drinks, chocolate, sweets toiletries, socks, pants, wet wipes. On some Sundays we take clothes, such as T-shirts, sweaters, joggers, shoes. Some of this we purchase new for them and some of it is donated.

All our funds received are either from donations or from Fundraising activities that the Trustee's arrange.

This Year however all our Fundraising Activities were cancelled due to the pandemic, and we were lucky enough to secure a grant to help us.

All our funds are spent on Helping London's Homeless.

Kind Regards

Jacqueline East
