Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are:

1. To relieve the mental and physical sickness of persons resident in Gwent - suffering from bereavement or loss; by the provision of counselling and support for such persons
2. To act as a resource for young orphans living in Ivory Coast; by providing advice and assistance and organising or sponsoring programmes of physical, educational and other activities as a means of:

- (a) advancing in life and helping young orphans by developing their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as independent, mature and responsible individuals;
- (b) advancing education;
- (c) relieving unemployment;
- (d) providing recreational and leisure time activity in the interests of social welfare for young orphans living in the area of benefit who have need by reason of their youth, age, poverty or social and economic circumstances, with a view to improving the conditions of life of such persons.

We encourage and support the participation of young orphans in Primary/secondary school education and vocational training courses. In December 2024 Christmas period we supported orphanages at - la Pouponnière de Yopougon, in Ivory Coast, by distributing items such as; clothing, food parcel, milk, etc.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Trustees have assessed all the major risks to which the charity maybe exposed to, in particular those related to operations and finances of the charity, and are satisfied that policies and procedures are in place to mitigate exposure to such risks.

The following policies in place to balance benefits against any detriment or harm:

- Quality Policy,
- Conflict of Interest Policy
- Equality & Diversity Policy,
- Complaint procedure

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The chair of the board of trustees travelled to Ivory Coast to meet with the beneficiaries of our activities. She paid for her flight, accommodation and local transportation, without any cost to this charity.

She spent her money for shipping clothing items donated in UK, to Ivory Coast for distribution to various orphanages.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Our main source of funds is from donations made by trustees, supporters and members of the public.

Our Conflict of Interest Policy.

The main focus of this policy is the transparency with which trustees account for the activities of;

- Investment of funds and resources
- Private benefit
- Covering legal requirements.
- developing good record-keeping and reporting practice.

Trustees have and must accept ultimate responsibility for directing the affairs of the charity, and ensuring:

- that it is solvent, well-run, and delivering the charitable outcomes for the benefit of the public for which it has been set up.
- Ensure that the charity complies with charity law, and with the requirements of the Charity Commission as regulator; in particular ensure that the charity prepares reports on what it has achieved and Annual Returns and accounts as required by law.
- Ensure that the charity does not breach any of the requirements or rules set out in its governing document and that it remains true to the charitable purpose and objects set out therein.
- Comply with the requirements of other legislation and other regulators (if any) which govern the activities of the charity.
- Act with integrity, and avoid any personal conflicts of interest or misuse of charity funds or assets.
- Ensure that the charity is and will remain solvent.
- Use charitable funds and assets reasonably, and only in furtherance of the charity's objects.
- Avoid undertaking activities that might place the charity's endowment, funds, assets or reputation at undue risk.
- Take special care when investing the funds of the charity, or borrowing funds for the charity to use.
- Use reasonable care and skill in their work as trustees, using their personal skills and experience as needed to ensure that the charity is well-run and efficient.
- Consider getting external professional advice on all matters where there may be material risk to the charity, or where the trustees may be in breach of their duties.

All trustees, however appointed, must act in the charity's interests, and must not represent the interests of any outside organisation or their own personal interests.
