Structure, governance and management

The charity is a CIO, registered with the Charity Commission (registered charity number 1178757).

The trustees are the Pastor (if not paid as an employee or office holder) and the deacons of the church.

New trustees are given a copy of the charity's constitution, its latest trustees' annual report and accounts and a copy of the charity's safeguarding policy.

Objectives and activities

The purposes of the charity are:

- (1) The advancement of the Christian faith in accordance with the basis of faith primarily but not exclusively within Mundesley and the surrounding neighbourhood; and
- (2) Such other charitable purposes as shall, in the opinion of the members of the church in general meeting further the work of the church.

The trustees have considered the general guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit. The charity benefits the public by teaching the Christian faith and sharing the good news about Jesus.

The public benefits from these activities are:

- Those who come to know and continue in the love of God report that accepting the love of God in Jesus Christ is the best decision they ever made and knowing this love gives them strength in their everyday life;
- Through the promotion of a moral framework;
- It is for the public good that the main beliefs of the Christian faith are made known as this enables people to make informed choices concerning religious belief and contributes to a free society where different ideas and beliefs are widely known by the public.

Achievements and performance

Throughout this period, the CIO did not carry out any activities.

Financial review

The charity had no funds in 2020.

The charity does not yet have a policy for holding reserves.

Plans for future periods

The future plan is for the assets of the church, currently held by a charitable unincorporated association, called Mundesley Free Church, to be transferred to the CIO and the CIO will then take over the running of the church.
