Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The charity continues to receive significant numbers of new applications for support We have in place an online process by which professional organisations can apply for support. These support applications are reviewed by trustees in the context of the financial position at the point of application and in line with our criteria. During this financial period, we have approved 57 new Support Applications for teams working in a wide variety of settings including scute hospitals, hospices and primary care. There are in addition to those organisations previously approved and that can order our resources. The charity has supplied 1,112 memory boxes and supporting contents to professionals working with bereaved children during the period covered by the report. These memory boxes and supporting contents cost £40 per unit to supply (on average over three age ranges). We remain a no-salary charity and run our operation from a donated space so also have no outgoings for premises. We have received many kind words of feedback relating to how our work is benefitting the beneficiaries, both from families and from the professionals using our boxes. We know from this feedback that our charitable activity is providing opportunities for children experiencing bereavement to have memory making opportunities and for the supporting adults to have timely access to supporting materials and signposting information.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Made a Mark

Registered Charity Number 1178952

I have been asked to examine the accounts on behalf of the Charity

Respective Responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The Charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation the Accounts. The Charity has prepared the accounts and I am qualified to undertake an independent examination of the accounts by holding a LCCI and GNVQ3 in Business and Finance as well as over 30 years experience as an accounts administrator.

Basis of independent examiner report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission.

The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual item or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiners statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

(1) To keep accounting records in accordance with the Charities Act; and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met

Or

(2) To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
