Trustees:	Yakop Repeh Atei Ali Matar Alenzi Naser Hassan Faiz Aljabir
Accountant:	ZA Ltd 8 Colton Road Harrow HA1 1SG
Proper Law:	England

Summary of the Trust objects:

- 1- Promotion of any purpose is beneficial to the public, especially Kuwaiti refugees and asylum seekers residing in London, Harrow council and Edgware and the Brent council through the promotion of education, health protection and relief from poverty and distress. As well as protecting their national identity to promote diversity in the integration process Powers.
- 2- Raising awareness of young people and girls, cultivating the right values and forming a good, strong and useful society. Educate the children and guide them to the right path and the prosperous future and educate them and implant family bonding among the members of the community and the establishment of a good generation. To conduct educational and educational courses in the field of education, training, civil defence, volunteer work, environmental service, country and land. Build an effective and sophisticated society
- 3- Support and develop individuals and families of stateless Kuwaitis who have settled here over the past few years due to legislative issues. We do this through volunteer activities such as translation support, educational, social and cultural opportunities so that our society becomes easier to integrate into the broader society. Our society has become under national focus for a number of different reasons, representing the largest ethnic community of refugees and asylum seekers within Harrow. Therefore, the existence of our association is the key to combating some of the negative issues that affect our community association.
- 4- Provide a series of training seminars for our members of women on various topics such as cooking, British society and children as well as a basic introduction to the main features of British life. We would like to do this in partnership with local agencies ie the proven start, refugee housing and other local associations. The courses will be in English with the interpreter's provisions in Arabic. Arabic and English Languages will take a large part of the activities, in addition to all the necessary issues that contribute to the balanced integration of members in the community.
- 5- We will ensure that our project is open to all segments of society by ensuring that seminars are held in all local places such as community centres, women's associations and places of worship (mosques and churches).
- 6- We will ensure that you personally contact a community marketing association for this.
 - Increase skills and creativity
 - Promote community spirit.
 - Celebrate diversity with other minorities.
 - Increase social integration
 - Increase skills and creativity. Skills and creativity are enhanced by raising awareness of the British-British way of life, the skills in childminding and also cooking. This will prepare our female members to adapt to the most appropriate way of life quickly and easily.
- 7- Promote community spirit. By ensuring that we are studying tolerance and respect for other different cultures, and ensuring that our members contribute to the wider society.

Kuwaiti Social and Culture Trust

- 8- Celebrate diversity with other minorities; by implementing values and tolerance with other communities locally and promoting the positive side of diversity within our society
- 9- Greater integration and understanding of the development process: by providing a clear picture of Western society in human development and by ensuring a correct and correct understanding of Western values in society.
