Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document
(eg. trust deed, constitution)

-The constitution of MO UK (Dated 30th December 2017) is the governing body.
-If anything needs to be amended on the constitution, it will have to pass through the agenda with majority votes from the Annual Meeting.
-The board will inform all the members for meeting well in advance with all the necessary information.

How the charity is constituted
(eg. trust, association, company)

-This is legally adopted by the UK Charity Commission (CIO) in 2017.

Trustee selection methods
(eg. appointed by, elected by)

-The existing trustees and advisors are responsible for selecting the new trustees. Trustee candidates must have a clean record of CRB.
- In selecting new trustee, we seek to identify members who regularly attend events and are willing to volunteer in our community work.
-Potential trustees are invited to attend the meeting and are given more details of the charity's basic aims and activities. If all agree, they are then appointed as new trustees.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;

(This area is for additional information regarding governance issues. It is optional.)
---

- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The object of MO UK:

- For public benefit, the charity's object is to assist with the relief of persons who are in need because of poverty. To promote and preserve our social and cultural traditions, in particular members of the Nepalese community:
Providing support to the Nepalese community in particular the Myagdi district and integrating them into the community through social events, especially to new arrivals.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- Funeral facilities: MO UK conducts the full funeral service to help the deceased's bereaved relatives, in line with the teachings of Hindu and Buddhist. All members and families of the community voluntarily contribute financial and material to the victim's family.
- Annual General Meeting (AGM): MO UK conducts AGM every year. Most importantly we discuss the yearly financial report, the activities held and future plans. Also, any discussions are held to clear up questions from the general members.
- Executive Committee Board Meetings: The community held a number of committee and members meeting physically and via zoom.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.
