Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To act as a resource for young people up to the age of 19 living in Birmingham and Solihull by providing advice and assistance and organizing programs of physical, educational and other activities as a means of:

- (a) advancing in life and helping young people by developing their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as independent, mature and responsible individuals;
- (b) advancing education;
- (c) relieving unemployment;
- (d) providing recreational and leisure time activity in the interests of social welfare for people living in the area of benefit who have need by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disability, poverty or social and economic circumstances with a view to improving the conditions of life of such persons;
- (e) Preserving and protecting the health and wellbeing.
- (f) Reducing engagement in crime and anti-social behaviour

Objectives and activities

The trustees will review the aims, objectives and activities of the charity each year.

Physical, educational, health and wellbeing aims are key to the Charity's aims and objectives. We also want to add the objective of:

reducing anti-social behaviour and reduction of engagement in crime for young people.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The trustees have identified that we will continue to endeavour to apply for further funding opportunities, to run projects that serve the needs of the service users. However, it is recognised that we have not had the funding in place as necessary to undertake these projects.

This has led to reduction in opportunities to undertake the projects that would be helpful to the community.

We are planning to make an application to the Community fund for Mental health Wellbeing support for young people the project will provide a safe; non-judgmental space where young people with mental health issues can come for support; relaxation and develop stress management strategies.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity has received small one-off donations but requires funding to undertake projects identified and will endeavour to secure funding for these. The process of making applications is time consuming, however this is crucial for the projects identified to be undertaken.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

In the Trustees' view, the reserves should provide the charity with adequate financial stability and the means for it to meet its charitable objectives for the foreseeable future.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

The trustees review the amount of reserves that are required to ensure that they are adequate to fulfil the charity's continuing obligations. However, has identified that funding for the identified projects is in process and needs to be secured.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity has continued to ensure insurance cover is in place for any activities that may be are granted approval

The charity website is in place so that funders can locate the charity

Small one-off donations have been received, but we are continuing to make applications for grants and donations for projects to be able to run these successfully, we need to secure the appropriate funding levels to achieve the outcomes we are seeking.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To act as a resource for young people up to the age of 19 living in Birmingham and Solihull by providing advice and assistance and organizing programs of physical, educational and other activities as a means of:

- (a) advancing in life and helping young people by developing their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as independent, mature and responsible individuals;
- (b) advancing education;
- (c) relieving unemployment;
- (d) providing recreational and leisure time activity in the interests of social welfare for people living in the area of benefit who have need by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disability, poverty or social and economic circumstances with a view to improving the conditions of life of such persons;
- (e) Preserving and protecting the health and wellbeing.
- (f) Reducing engagement in crime and anti-social behaviour

Objectives and activities

The trustees will review the aims, objectives and activities of the charity each year.

Physical, educational, health and wellbeing aims are key to the Charity's aims and objectives. We also want to add the objective of:

reducing anti-social behaviour and reduction of engagement in crime for young people.

We look forward to continuing to develop our work within these key areas to focus on for the next financial year:

We look forward to setting up and running our next projects and looking at expanding our funding goals and achieving these.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Review and feedback of engagement from service users within the Creative Arts Covid 19 project 2020/2021, over 400 children took part

- participation from school children in deprived communities as well as children within the community.
- The response to the events was bigger than we anticipated. We had a positive response, and we were able to reach a larger group of children from primary school ages
- We received positive feedback from the teachers, the children and parents
- Teachers, parents and children said they would like to participate in more events that we hold
- We need to think about expanding our reach and how we do this.

Covid 19 challenges in operating

- Significant disruption to our operational process
- Difficulties in funding
- Disruptions to operating and planning projects
- Impact on health of volunteers, trustees and working processes of the charity.
