- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Annual training day to be introduced to volunteers and trustees.

The charity will expand its age to children as young as 3 years.

We may need to consider Ofsted registration for future projects that have been discussed.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To act as a resource for young people up to the age of 19 living in Birmingham and Solihull by providing advice and assistance and organizing programs of physical, educational and other activities as a means of:
(a) advancing in life and helping young people by developing their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as independent, mature and responsible individuals;

- (b) advancing education;
- (c) relieving unemployment;
- (d) providing recreational and leisure time activity in the interests of social welfare for people living in the area of benefit who have need by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disability, poverty or social and economic circumstances with a view to improving the conditions of life of such persons;
- (e) Preserving and protecting the health and wellbeing.
- (f) Reducing engagement in crime and anti-social behaviour

Objectives and activities

The trustees will review the aims, objectives and activities of the charity each year.

Physical, educational, health and wellbeing aims are key to the Charity's aims and objectives. We also want to add the objective of:

reducing anti-social behaviour and reduction of engagement in crime for young people.

We look forward to continuing to develop our work within these key areas to focus on for the next financial year:

We look forward to setting up and running our next projects and looking at expanding our funding goals and achieving these.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- We need to think about expanding our reach and how we do this.
- We need to put in place manager in place that will co-ordinate events and operational activities of the charity.
- We need to explore greater funding streams to fund projects.

Covid 19 challenges in operating

- Significant disruption to our operational process
- Difficulties in funding
- Disruptions to operating and planning projects
- Impact on health of volunteers, trustees and working processes of the charity.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Training for volunteers and volunteer day to be identified and planned into the charity diary.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We need to re set and identify new volunteers, that will be willing and committed to carrying out the work of the charity.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

In the Trustees' view, the reserves should provide the charity with adequate financial stability and the means for it to meet its charitable objectives for the foreseeable future.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

The trustees review the amount of reserves that are required to ensure that they are adequate to fulfil the charity's continuing obligations on a quarterly basis at their finance meeting

Further financial review details (Optional information)
