INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF SIKHS IN THE CITY

I have examined the accounts of Sikhs In The City for the year ended 31st August 2025 as set out on pages 7 to 9. These accounts have been prepared on a receipts and payments basis.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and auditors

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

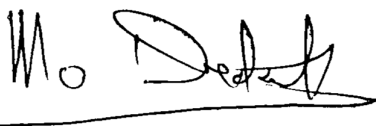

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:

- a) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
- b) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

SITC organises a number of small 10km runs for local charities and SITC members take part in local races organised by other local charities to help with their fundraising.

The Premiere event SITC organises on annually is the Dawn To Dusk Ultra (D2D) on the middle Sunday of December which comprises of four distances , namely 10km, 22km, marathon, Ultra marathon and a Team Ultra Relay. There is an equivalent event in June called the Summer Samosa Ultra – these events provides SITC with the vast majority of its annual funds from the entry fees from participants. Although SITC only became a registered charity in late 2018, the D2D has grown from 93 runners to 360 participants in the last eight years with participants coming from all over the UK and abroad.

During the last year, SITC has progressed its discussions with the local authority (London Borough of Redbridge) to the signing off stage of an agreement to lease a parcel of land measuring 108 square metres so that SITC can build a clubhouse from where SITC will operate in the future.

SITC has launched a GoFundMe appeal to raise £425,000 for this purpose and so far it has raised a total exceeding £26,000 although this has not yet been transferred to its bank account as yet. The link to the fundraising appeal is on the SITC website (www.sikhsinthecity.org).

The entry fees from participants funds the SITC events – all but cash deposits transactions are done electronically for which SITC has monthly statements.

Section F Other optional information

SITC's work on fighting obesity was measured by meeting a target of losing 500kg in weight in 10 months by 100 participants every year. The FAT MUMS CLUB had interim targets starting with being able to complete 5km without stopping, then to beat a 40 minute target and then to reach a six miles in an hour target. This has now been superceded by regular training for the major races mentioned earlier. SITC facilitates the community entries to The Big Half of 100 participants and nearly over 20 to the London Marathon. This year, SITC has plans to have 30 runners take part in the London 10,000m. SITC also signposts participants to professionals offering advice on healthy living, including those who provide such support on pro-bono basis.

All SITC events are advertised as open to all and SITC dedicates some events to the local Mayor's Annual Appeal which benefit the Mayor's chosen local charities. SITC organises races to raise funds for the local Mayor's Appeal. It also organises smaller events on behalf of other local good causes. All these events raised funds for local charities..

All SITC lifetime members volunteer their time and expertise in organising and delivering the events. SITC members have experience of organising over 100 events the standard of which is acknowledged nationally leading them to be chosen by New Balance as one of their Run Clubs for the London Marathon and The Big Half. The Trustees have experience of coaching the elderly (Fauja Singh) and blind athletes (Louise Simpson – who is a double Paralympian). Louise has now run over 100 marathons.

SITC events are considered by participants to be excellent value for money and noted by feedback from them on independent social media platforms – e.g. Runners World Race Reviews. SITC also incorporates concessions and discounts for children, those with hidden challenges such as Mental Health and pensioners where appropriate.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF SIKHS IN THE CITY

I have examined the accounts of Sikhs In The City for the year ended 31st August 2023 as set out on pages 7 to 9. These accounts have been prepared on a receipts and payments basis.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and auditors

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:

- a) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
- b) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
