Achievement and performance

Following on from the successes of the first year, the charity was adversely affected by Covid-19 and subsequently ceased all operations and services during the peak of the pandemic.

Financial Review

There has been zero income and expenses during the period 01 January 2021 to 31 December 2021. Since Covid-19 operations and the administration have completed ceased. The only transaction in the financial year was for £1,000.00 donation to another charity.

Plan for the future

The charity is currently closed and not operating or providing any services. It is unlikely the charity will reopen in the immediate future.

Structure, Governance and Management

BiLD is registered on Companies House as a Charitable incorporated organisation (CE015031) and registered with the UK Charities Commission as a charity on 03 September 2018 (1179775).

The nature, reason and requirement for replacement (including the replacement process) would primarily be the concern and responsibility of the Trustees.

The trustees may from time to time make such rules and regulations in their absolute discretion think fit for the management of the institution and may at any time vary such rules and regulations.
