Section D	Achievements and performance
------------------	-------------------------------------

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

LLUK has successfully improved the quality of life of the vulnerable and homeless in the UK by supporting them directly and indirectly and advocating for them to get the help they need. Such help ranges from accommodation to other essentials for everyday living.

We have helped with the relief of poverty, disability awareness and support for homelessness (suitable and appropriate housing) and followed up specific cases to ensure that necessary positive changes required were achieved.

We continued to support a family in Guildford, where a mother, Hannah was struggling with the loss of her new born baby D, that she continued to keep up with her home and having her necessities. Financial support was provided for the baby's funeral arrangements by finalising the funding to Dignity Funerals.

Outside the UK

Love Link UK supported SALCET with their work with San Vicente and Candray Foundation in El Salvador; where our donation covered all the surgical medical expenses for a lady in El Salvador (Mrs. Maria Lidia Valladares de López) to have her sight restored after a successful cataract operation. Before our intervention her vision had significantly deteriorated but she can now see clearly following the successful surgery.

We have supported Ms Victoria Taiwo with her work and charitable activities in Ghana.
