Trustees' annual report

The trustees present their annual report for the year ended 31 March 2025.

Objectives and activities

Joining Hands Joining Hearts (JHJH) is a domestic violence support group based in Sittingbourne, Kent. JHJH is the only organisation in the Kent area that provides personalised support, education and training to all those who seek the charity's help and works with both women and men.

The purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document are as follows:

- To relieve the needs of victims of domestic abuse and their children, in particular but not exclusively, by the provision of advice, support and raising awareness.
- To educate the public in the causes and effects of domestic abuse and the prevention thereof, in particular but not exclusively by the provision of training courses on domestic abuse to raise awareness of the issue and reduce the stigma and discrimination associated with it.
- To promote social inclusion for the public benefit by preventing people from becoming socially excluded, relieving the needs of those people who are socially excluded and assisting them to integrate into society by working with multiple agencies for the benefit of said object for the purpose of this clause socially excluded means being excluded from society, or parts of society, as a result of one or more of the following factors: unemployment; financial hardship; youth or old age; ill health (physical or mental); substance abuse or dependency including alcohol and drugs; discrimination on the grounds of sex, race, disability, ethnic origin, religion, belief, creed, sexual orientation or gender re-assignment; poor educational or skills attainment; relationship and family breakdown; poor housing (that is housing that does not meet basic habitable standards; crime (either as a victim of crime or as an offender rehabilitating into society).

Its services range from coffee mornings and friendship groups to advice on court proceedings, educational training programmes and life skills courses.

The charity was founded by Keeley Beeney in 2016 following her own personal, lived experience of domestic abuse. It initially began with coffee mornings and the building of true friendships with a small group of survivors who supported one another, before quickly growing to become the local lifeline to domestic abuse survivors that it is today. Driven by first-hand experience of the lack of help and resources available in the Kent area, Keeley decided to start offering a number of open-access support services, focussing on forging personal relationships, and providing both emotional and practical support to assist survivors to feel more confident, resilient and to move forward. Eight years on, JHJH is highly regarded by all parties it serves: the survivor community, local referral partners, and other domestic abuse charities.

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

Achievements and performance

Over the past seven years the charity has:

- supported over 500 children and adults, approximately 1 in 20 of whom were men.
- delivered 100 different support and well-being courses and 6 Freedom Courses, which are 12-week courses designed for victims of domestic violence and enable attendees to understand unhealthy relationships and how to make change safely.
- partnered with seven local organisations including Southern Housing, Community Driving School, Squiggle Consult, Fairshare Co-op, Tesco, Trussell Trust and Cooking in the Woods.

The charity maintains a confidential log of each client's journey, and they report improved mental health and well-being and reduced isolation and thoughts of suicide.

Financial review

At the end of the period, the total net assets of the charity consisted of cash at bank and in hand of £30,004 (2024: £10,872).

Where a donor of a grant or a donation declares that the funds must be used for a specific purpose such amounts are classed as restricted income funds. At the end of the period, two restricted reserves were held by the charity:

- The fund from community grants is designated to provide the founder of the charity with income for her involvement. At the end of the period, the amount of this reserve was £24,649 (2024: £7,100).
- The fund from IT and security grants is designated for the provision of security and IT for clients and the charity. At the end of the period, the amount of this reserve was £nil (2024: £1,200).
- The fund from Isle of Sheppey grants is designated to support the work of a new group. At the end of the period, the amount of this reserve was £938 (2024: £nil).

Structure, governance and management

The charity is governed by a board of 5 trustees, including HR and finance professionals as well as former abuse survivors. Trustees are recruited primarily by word-of-mouth.

The charity is a charitable incorporated organisation (CIO) registered on 19 September 2018.

Independent Examiner's Report to the trustees of Joining Hands Joining Hearts

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of Joining Hands Joining Hearts for the year ended 31st March 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report.

As the trustees of the charity you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act. applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination. I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

AGM

Joining Hands Joining Hearts

Location: via Zoom

Present: Kelly P, Keeley B, Viren, Lenny, Hina, Charlene, Suzanne, Louise, Elaine, Charlotte

Apologies: Diane, John and Chris.

Absent messages: Sandra Yardley messaged ahead of AGM as unable to attend for personal reasons but supplied votes ahead.

Sunday 8th October 2023 – Meeting Opened at 6.30pm

Welcome:

Introductions given from all present.

Finances:

These were read out and all agreed, ready to be uploaded. Many thanks to Elaine for presenting these.

Information:

Keeley's role ahead will be changing within the charity due to funding bid received, this will be discussed further in trustee meeting following.

Year Ahead:

Keeley has expressed her thanks to all that are involved with JHJH and is grateful for all the time people volunteer.

With new trustees being brought on board with a multitude of skills we are hoping to progress into a better sleeker organized place within the community. Volunteers have changed over the year, but we have a lot of the original team still active, bringing familiarity to the charity. Keeley has ordered fundraising buckets and with the help of Louise the label designs have been completed.

Suzanne has secured a funding bid from Kent Police for £12,000 which is for safety equipment (personal alarms, cameras for houses) and for 4 laptops. Suzanne's bid writing has been such a great investment and has helped us move forward reaching goals and aims to supports ladies and families.

Votes and team changes:

Keeley Nominated Charlotte W, as a trustee – 4 votes received and agreed.

Keeley nominated Sandra to stand as chair (Sandra aware in advance of this) all present agreed. (voted by trustees, Keeley, Hina, Kelly,)

Kelly nominated John N (CDS) as a trustee – 4 votes received and agreed

Stepping down:

Kelly stepping down as trustee but still being active as secretary.

Keeley stepping down as chair new role within charity to be confirmed.

Discussion:

Hina will be stepping down as trustee and treasurer moving forward as soon as new bank account set up and treasurer secured. (all agreed to this).

End of Meeting: 7.30
