I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended DD / MM / YYYY.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Achievement 2024 -25

As we watched people in the community struggle through the hardship of making ends meet their basic needs, the trustees, in line with our core vision to give them the support, encouragement, and help that is needed to survive, decided to apply for grants.

In November 2024, this charity successfully received a grant of £18,160 from the National Lottery of Community Fund.

The trustees launched 'Foodbank Service for London Community' and spent £18,294 to provide free food banks.

'Foodbank Service for London Community' This new food bank project provided healthy food to our community people who are in desperate need, alleviate hunger, and support households and families to stay alive. We ensured the project was effectively publicized through social media, community hubs, schools, and word of mouth, local news etc. The food bank successfully ran for a period of four months; starting in the month of November 2024 to February 2025, for vulnerable and low-income households and families desperate for immediate help and support with food. The food bank was open eight times per month distributing nutritious food items and food baskets to as many as are in need. There were supplies of pasta/Rice, Tinned tomatoes/pasta sauce, Cereal, Lentils, beans and pulses, Tinned meat/fish, tinned vegetables, Tinned spaghetti, toiletries etc.

We believe that as a community, our bond is strengthened when we stand together, encourage, and support each other in times of hardship and crisis such as what we are experiencing currently in London.

The project provided essential support to vulnerable individuals, ensuring access to nutritious food. It alleviated food insecurity, improve health and well-being, and offer a sense of community.

FEED-BACK ON OUTCOME

We used opinion poll forms to get feedback on the project and will use the information to plan for future projects. The feed-back reaching the charity indicated this initiative fostered resilience and stability, helping people focus on rebuilding their lives.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Investment Policy

Trustees have and must accept ultimate responsibility for directing the affairs of the charity, and ensuring:

- that the charity is solvent, well-run, and delivering the charitable outcomes for the benefit of the public for which it has been set up.
- Ensure that the charity complies with charity law, and with the requirements of the Charity Commission as regulator; in particular ensure that the charity trustees prepare Annual Reports on what it has achieved and Annual Returns and accounts as required by law.
- Ensure that the charity does not breach any of the requirements or rules set out in its governing document and that it remains true to the charitable purpose and objects set out therein.
- Comply with the requirements of other legislation and other regulators (if any) which govern the activities of the charity.
- Act with integrity, and avoid any personal conflicts of interest or misuse of charity funds or assets.
- Ensure that the charity is and will remain solvent.
- Use charitable funds and assets reasonably, and only in furtherance of the charity's objects.
- Avoid undertaking activities that might place the charity's endowment, funds, assets or reputation at undue risk.
- Take special care when investing the funds of the charity, or borrowing funds for the charity to use.
- Use reasonable care and skill in their work as trustees, using their personal skills and experience as needed to ensure that the charity is well-run and efficient.
- Consider getting external professional advice on all matters where there may be material risk to the charity, or where the trustees may be in breach of their duties.

All trustees, however appointed, must act in the charity's interests, and must not represent the interests of any outside organisation or their own personal interests.

Trustees value professional and personal development for both Trustees and Volunteers. New trustees and Staff, including volunteers are given induction regarding the charity policies and working document. They are encouraged and supported in their training and development to enhance efficiency and competencies in carrying out their tasks and responsibilities in order to achieve the objects of the charity.
