Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Advice service: Norfolk Badger Trust have been able to assist a number of individuals and organisations by providing information and advice about badgers in Norfolk, which has resulted in direct and indirect benefit to badgers and the general public. Examples of such instances include: following up on reports of potential wildlife crime reported by concerned members of the public and liaising with the police and providing appropriate advice; providing advice to famers and landowners experiencing issues with badgers on their land; liaising with ecological consultants in order to aid ecological assessments of potential developments such as road construction. Norfolk Badger Trust collect, validate (where appropriate) and collate badger records (setts, live sightings and dead animals) from trustees, members and the general public via voluntary reporting. This information is made available for use by third parties in research and impact assessments for developments etc. where appropriate. All of the activities listed above have benefitted badgers and/or the public. By offering advice and information Norfolk Badger Trust have been able to effectively promote the conservation and protection of badgers, which in turn ensures the ecosystem services they provide humanity persist. These activities also facilitate a reduction in human-badger conflict e.g. through minimising damage to property or promoting mitigation to reduce road vehicle collisions with badgers, and allowing people to work within the laws pertaining to badgers and their setts.

Charity name: Norfolk Badger Trust

Charity registration number: 1180066

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	a) For the public benefit, to promote and enhance the welfare, conservation and protection of badgers Meles meles, their setts and habitats in the Norfolk area. b) To advance the education of the public in the welfare, conservation and protection of badgers, their setts and habitats.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The main activities undertaken by Norfolk Badger Trust for the public benefit during the period have included: providing advice about badgers directly to members of the public free of charge; assisting in wildlife rescue operations involving badgers and collecting sett and badger records. Activities were limited during this period by the Coronavirus pandemic, restricted to those that were essential only.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees of Norfolk Badger Trust have complied with their duty to have due regard to the commission's public benefit guidance when exercising any powers or duties to which the guidance is relevant.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Advice service: Norfolk Badger Trust have been able to assist a number of individuals and organisations by providing information and advice about badgers in Norfolk, which has resulted in direct and indirect benefit to badgers and the general public. Examples of such instances include: following up on reports of potential wildlife crime reported by concerned members of the public and liaising with the police; providing advice to concerned landowners about orphan badger cubs and ultimately carrying out rescue and rehabilitation; working with wildlife rescue organisations to facilitate rescue operations; providing advice to farmers and landowners experiencing issues with badgers on their land; liaising with ecological consultants in order to aid ecological assessments of potential developments. Public engagement/educational talks: During the reporting period the Coronavirus pandemic has meant that the group did not attend public events or deliver talks such as would usually be a core activity of the group.

		Norfolk Badger Trust collect, validate (where appropriate) and collate badger records (setts, live sightings and dead animals) from trustees, members and the general public via voluntary reporting. All of the activities listed above have benefitted badgers and/or the public. By offering advice and information Norfolk Badger Trust have been able to effectively promote the conservation and protection of badgers, which in turn ensures the ecosystem services they provide humanity persist. These activities also facilitate a reduction in human-badger conflict e.g. through minimising damage to property or promoting mitigation to reduce road vehicle collisions with badgers, and allowing people to work within the laws pertaining to badgers and their setts.
