Structure and management

Project Girl Foundation is a registered CIO governed by its Constitution adopted by the trustees and registered with the Charity Commission on 28th September 2018.

The skills and experience required by the Trustee Board is regularly reviewed and, where gaps are identified, new trustees with the requisite skills and knowledge are actively sought.

All new trustees receive a personalised induction, which includes meetings with existing trustees. They receive copies of key documents and updates on their roles and responsibilities as required.

The trustees have delegated the majority of the day-to-day running of the charity to Lily Nwamaraihe.

Activities and objectives in the year

The objectives of the charity are the advancement and relief of poverty for girls and local communities living in rural Africa via education, in particular but not exclusively by:

- building schools in rural Africa,
- implementing functional literacy programmes in local communities,
- teaching girls a trade in schools in order to support self-reliance,
- educating girls in sexual health and family planning; and
- providing continuous professional development training for all teaching staff by creating partnerships with teachers and schools in the UK and Africa.

The objectives for the year were to continue the work of the charity by donations to a sister charitable organisation in Nigeria through which locally based employees could be recruited.

Achievements and performance

The charity has not operated either in Nigeria or the UK during the year covered by this report.

Public benefit

In setting our activities and objectives the year we have regard to both the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit and prevention and relief of poverty for the public benefit. The trustees always ensure that the programmes we undertake are in line with our charitable objects and aims.

Financial review

As of 1st June 2024, the charity held unrestricted reserves of £55 as cash.

The charity does not hold any funds as a custodian trustee.
