Trustee selection methods
(eg. appointed by, elected by)

- (1) Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. All trustees are life time trustees, subject to section 12 (1) and (2) of the charity's governing document.
- (2) In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Section C	Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are:

To advance the religion of Islam according to the Quran the Sunnah and Hadith by means of, particularly but not exclusively, the establishment of a mosque and madrassah in Oldham and the surrounding areas. The prevention or relief of poverty anywhere in the world by providing grants, items and services to individuals, charities, or other organisations working to prevent or relieve poverty.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The main activities of the charity have been to fundraise from the public and to set out governing documents and policies to smoothly run the charity.

Charity commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently, make judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the Association will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The Trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the association and hence to take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
