Glastonbury & Street Bridging the Gap foodbank is a local, volunteer-led charity serving mainly the BA6 and BA16 postcodes, providing food and other essentials to individuals and families. It was established more than 10 years ago by the local Churches Together to meet a need for food provision.

Glastonbury Bridging the Gap is a registered charity operating under a constitution adopted in May 2018. Our trustees are elected on a 3 year rolling term, and we invite other interested parties in the local community to consider becoming a trustee. Our current trustees are:

Jane Reeves 2024 - 2027

Mary Powell 2023-2026

Barnaby Tolhurst 2023-2026

Food poverty can hit anybody, anywhere.

An unexpected bill, a rise in rent, a relationship breakdown, childcare costs.

Glastonbury St Benedict's Ward is in the highest decile of deprivation according to government figures. Over 25% of children in St Benedict's Ward are living in poverty and more than 35% of households in Glastonbury experience deprivation in at least 1 area. Low-paying jobs, a seasonal economy, lack of employment opportunities, dearth of affordable housing, and low-level crime/antisocial behaviour add to the sense of hopelessness for established residents. In addition, Glastonbury has long been a place that draws people, including both tourists and a transient population who come searching for something.

We are a referral only delivery service.

We aim to deliver a week's worth of packaged and fresh foods to recipients.
