Independent Examiners Report for the trustees of
THOUSANDS BUDDHA UK
For the year ended 31 March 2025

To the trustees of Thousands Buddha UK on the accounts for the period ended 31 March 2025 set out on pages 8 to 13.

This report is made solely to the trustees of charity, as a body. My examination work has been undertaken so that I might state to the society's members those matters I am required to state to them in an examiners' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the society and the society's members as a body, for my work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act"). I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

My responsibility is to:

- examine the accounts
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145 (5) (b) of the Charities Act and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Independent Examiner's Statement

The charity's gross income exceeded £25,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of ACCA.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the account did not comply with the applicable requirement concerning the forms and contents of the accounts set out in the charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the account gives true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an examination

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiners Report for the trustees of

To the trustees of Thousands Buddha UK on the accounts for the period ended 31 March 2024 set out on pages 8 to 13.

This report is made solely to the trustees of charity, as a body. My examination work has been undertaken so that I might state to the society's members those matters I am required to state to them in an examiners' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the society and the society's members as a body, for my work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act"). I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

My responsibility is to:

- examine the accounts
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145 (5) (b) of the Charities Act and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Independent Examiner's Statement

The charity's gross income exceeded £25,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of ACCA.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the account did not comply with the applicable requirement concerning the forms and contents of the accounts set out in the charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that that the account gives true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an examination

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiners Report for the trustees of
For the year ended 31 March 2023

To the trustees of Thousands Buddha UK on the accounts for the period ended 31 March 2023 set out on pages 8 to 13.

This report is made solely to the trustees of charity, as a body. My examination work has been undertaken so that I might state to the society's members those matters I am required to state to them in an examiners' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the society and the society's members as a body, for my work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act"). I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

My responsibility is to:

- examine the accounts
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145 (5) (b) of the Charities Act and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Independent Examiner's Statement

The charity's gross income exceeded £25,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of ACCA.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the account did not comply with the applicable requirement concerning the forms and contents of the accounts set out in the charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that that the account gives true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an examination

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Discussion on major activities are held in advance and agreement reached with executive committee members and trustees on the charity's policy programme and financial activities.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- To advance the Buddhist religion in England and Wales for the public benefit in accordance with the Buddhist philosophy.
- For the public benefit, foster good community relationship and development.
- For the public benefit, promote religious and racial harmony, and equality in all Buddhist living in England and Wales.
- For the public benefit, Advance Buddhist Arts, Culture and Heritage.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit concerning these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- The Covid-19 lockdown (March 2020 to July 2021) and its aftermath hampered many activities, however, the following activities were undertaken:
- Since the start of Covid-19 lockdown in March 2020, the Chair had personally volunteered to help those who needed help during the Covid-19 lockdown period.
- Aid and advice were given to the charity members and non-members affected by the Covid-19 lockdown on how to handle issues they had.
- Promoted civic responsibility and good citizenship using social media platform, and one to one discussion.
- Promoted volunteer contribution of members both financially and physically to deliver goods and medicine to in need. Financial contribution toward building the Charity's place of worship was continued as can be seen on the financial statement provided.
- Continuance of help and/or advice to the charity members who were under undue stress due to loss of a family member because of Covid19 and other medical/natural causes.
- Due to Covid19 lockdown Buddha Jayanti celebration, generally held in May every year, was postponed until May 2023.
- Continued raising awareness of Equality, human right issues and discipline to the members and wider community.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme-related investment;
- Contributions made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

As stated above, due to Covid 19, we were unable to run any religious programme or charity events but were engaged in charity activities as stated above. Donation collected and provided moral and physical help to those in need of these difficult times.

Independent Examiners Report for the trustees of
For the year ended 31 March 2022

To the trustees of Thousands Buddha UK on the accounts for the period ended 31 March 2022 set out on pages 8 to 13.

This report is made solely to the trustees of charity, as a body. My examination work has been undertaken so that I might state to the society's members those matters I am required to state to them in an examiners' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the society and the society's members as a body, for my work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act"). I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

My responsibility is to:

- examine the accounts
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145 (5) (b) of the Charities Act and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Independent Examiner's Statement

The charity's gross income exceeded £25,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of ACCA.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the account did not comply with the applicable requirement concerning the forms and contents of the accounts set out in the charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that that the account gives true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an examination

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiners Report for the trustees of
THOUSANDS BUDDHA UK
For the year ended 31 March 2021

To the trustees of Thousands Buddha UK on the accounts for the period ended 31 March 2021 set out on pages 8 to 13.

This report is made solely to the trustees of charity, as a body. My examination work has been undertaken so that I might state to the society's members those matters I am required to state to them in an examiners' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the society and the society's members as a body, for my work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act"). I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

My responsibility is to:

- examine the accounts
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145 (5) (b) of the Charities Act and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Independent Examiner's Statement

The charity's gross income exceeded £25,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of ACCA.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the account did not comply with the applicable requirement concerning the forms and contents of the accounts set out in the charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that that the account gives true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an examination

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
