I do feel privileged being part of change, giving for children and youngsters in need a future, and a chance of employment.

I am happy to report We have managed to reach over 4000 benefactors, even with a small amount of funding, through an amazing net of volunteers, and hardworking coordinators we improved our project delivery, and brilliant budget planning, We focused to reach the maximum benefactors, with the best and clearest impact. We are happy to announce that the year ended without any loans.

As last year In response to the need of our communities, we are providing more focused projects addressing the immediate need of the community and the problems they are facing.

We are addressing gaps in services not provided by the council and other charity's. Focusing on those with disabilities, especially mentally disabled.

Most notable of our achievements this year our summer camp for 900 children and youngsters, impressively, we managed to achieve a higher level of our goals.

Notably Our girl's hygiene project. Helping over 600 disadvantaged girls, we are proud to announce we provided for families in extreme poverty over £40,000 worth of food, and over £35000 pounds of essentials.

Thank you in kind direct and the bakeries in hackney and harringey for helping us reach further than we ever thought possible.

The Trustees and Beneficiaries are very grateful to you generous donors and supporters. We look forward to the future with optimism. Committed to continuing our good work and are hoping to continue the success, which we achieved so far unlocking it through conscious effort and consistent action.*

Challenge Yourself: Set high goals and push beyond your comfort zones to experience maximum growth and improvement.

Take Action: Choose to take action rather than remain in the status quo, as this is the key to reaching your full potential.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS REPORT

I report on the financial statements of Camp Knak for the year ended 31 December 2024

Respective Responsibilities of Governors and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144, 145 and 145(5) of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention;

- 1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
    - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
    - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Acthave not been met; or
  - 2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the
- accounts to be reached.
