Chairman's Statement

For Affinity Missions Year Ended 31 December 2025

2025 has been another year of maximizing Mission opportunities. Setting aside bad travelling months and the mid-year holiday months, we were able to complete a mission every month, seven missions abroad in total.

In addition to matters abroad, we were thankful for the ongoing opportunity of local mission activity under the working name of Westover Beacon, continuing to not only fulfil our objectives, but adding to them with Coffee Events, Café Events, Easter and Christmas functions, and Foodbank activities, all of which have resulted in people in England being reached, helped and incorporated in Christianity, and will result in much more substantial outreach possibilities for 2026.

It was our joy to visit Albania three times during the year, the first time in April. This time we had travelling with us a person who had first ministered in Albania more than twenty years ago, and it was such a joy and privilege to include Alan Heavey in the team led by our extremely capable and creative national coordinator, Gentjan Dervishaj. Also, as part of the team, John Grant had the joyful experience of renewing several contacts he had worked with in 2004 when developing an Albanian National evangelistic outreach at that time.

We did ten events across six of the twelve provinces of Albania, in Milot, Durres, Fushe Kruje, Velcan Slabinje, Krickove, Bilisht and Tirana, the highlight being in Bilisht where the restaurant was filled with 160 people, the whole audience listening intently and responding unanimously in vocal prayer, eighty of the one hundred invited guests, filling in a response card indicating they had invited Jesus Christ to be their Saviour and Lord. Another highlight was the three small villages in the mountainous district of Mokra, 2000 meters above sea level; 300 people attended and many responded to the invitation.

On the 3rd July 2025, Kenny Cormack from Scotland, teamed up with Alan Heavey, John Grant and Gentjan Dervishaj to spend four full days doing evangelistic meal event outreaches across Albania, on this second visit. With two major events cancelled and substituted with smaller ones, we fell short of the mission target figure of 1000, but nevertheless totaled 828, a really good number, especially with a very healthy response rate.

All the events on this visit were in the South of the country, spread substantially across the country from the West to the East. Centers visited were Klos, Burrell, Divjaka, Novisele, Velcan, Krickove, Bilisht, Pogradec, Mollas, Prrenjas, and Cerrick. In April, only three events were in the South, so this was a constructive follow-up mission.

Fabulous statistics emerged from this mission – 730 people wanted more information, 770 stated their desire to attend a next step meeting, and 150 people asked for a home visit. We rejoiced at the marvelous work of the Holy Spirit through his servants, organising and activating the events – huge thanks are due to Kenny, Alan and Gentjan for their input to be instrumental in bringing more than 400 persons into the Kingdom of God.

On the 18th September, Ray Centanni from America arrived in Albania for a mission of eight events, focused on Adriatic coastal towns on the West side of the country, but which also took in Pogradec on the shores of beautiful Lake Ohrid and the inland towns of Korce and Lushnje.

We did two events in Durres and in Korce, four other events in Propiste, Fier, Novisele and Lushnje, and in addition, accepted the invitation of the Christ for the Nations Bible College that was celebrating 25 years of establishment in Pogradec - the team were able to meet with many of the 250 delegates to liaise for future events, and it was such a joy for John Grant to meet many persons he had worked with whilst setting up his inaugural outreach to Albania in 2003. It was such an encouragement for John to have witnessed the growth of the Albanian church from a total number across the country 23 years ago of 1000 believers to a situation in the activities of just one Pastor present at this celebration, with plans of starting 14 churches on his own.

A huge thank you is due to Ray for making this mission a great success, and of course to Gentjan and his fabulous initiative and hard work, his intercession and faith that so encouraged the team on these three exciting adventures for the Lord – what a privilege it has been to serve God alongside these dedicated disciples of Jesus. We pray that Christ has been glorified, and that the trust placed in us by board and supporters has been honoured.

As with Albania, we were thrilled to be able to visit Macedonia three times this year.

Macedonia in May, was special, because of the evangelist for the mission, Kate Grant; someone who is greatly loved by the Macedonians because of her great love for them. It was good to once again team up with our Macedonian Co-ordinator, with whom we have been working profusely over two decades – cumulative missions with Jimmy in Macedonia and other neighbouring countries could well be the vicinity of three figures in total, and still yielding very responsive and fresh outreaches, for the Lord's glory and the building of his kingdom – a most remarkable man of faith and action, and it is always a privilege to work with him and his lovely teams.

On this trip too was the special joy of working with a couple that we have known since we have been serving the Lord in Macedonia, Vane and Irena Tasevski who for two years now, have been conducting their own mission ministry, based in the mid-country industrial town named Negotino.

We did twelve events across large swathes of the country, in the villages and towns of Kavardaci, Negotino, Radovisi, Lozovo, Veles, Rosoman, Vinica, Kamenica, Radanje, Gradsko and Pepeliste, all of them very different,, but all of them hugely productive in terms of people deciding to accept new life in Jesus. Kate was very well received and shared a great simple Gospel message to major effect, with good testimony backup from Clare Warne, from Kate's UK Church, participating for the very first time in organised evangelism outreach.

Very joyfully this mission concluded with the team taking home under their belts, the thrilling experience of seeing 78% of the unsaved guests they ministered to make a decision to invite Jesus into their lives. – we have been told of many that have found their way into the local churches – praise God!

Following shortly after our outreach in May, in June came a wonderful opportunity to build on the great partnership we have in Macedonia with our Co-Ordinator extraordinaire, Jimmy Simons and his super teams, Alan Heavey, long established evangelist who has been working with John Grant since 2002 and who has been to Macedonia dozens of times, was happy to make this trip and the Lord very much blessed his ministry.

The focus of this outreach was to more than ever, to reach people who have never before sat under the Gospel and new opportunities arose, some of which meaning just reaching a handful of people, but this was not a deterrent because we share in the vision of angels rejoicing over just one sinner who repents.

We did eight events across the country, in the villages and towns of Delcevo, Jakimovo, Krivolok, Valandova, Demir Kapiva, Caska, Veles and Prilep; all of them very different, but all of them very productive in terms of people deciding to accept new life in Jesus. Alan was his usual excellent self, reaching so well to every different audience as lead by the Holy Spirit. Alan also spoke at Headquarters Church in Veles and had the joy of seeing eight persons surrender their lives to Christ. The church was also challenged to get involved in evangelism

Part of this mission was an outdoors event, reaching out to Roma people who are not welcomed in the city, and are living in makeshift houses on rocky hills outside the city, with no sewerage, water, electricity, services, and roads – frequent visits to Prilep have created a Christian community in a church which is probably the biggest in the country. What a joy it was to be able to provide meals to these people and then offer them the opportunity of spiritual nourishment as well, many of them having accepted new life in Christ.

Returning to Macedonia for the third time in November really was just what was needed to complete the year – Alan Heavey would be working with his longstanding colleague, Jimmy Simon, but would also have the additional joy of working with Vane and Irena; long-time friends operating in another region of the country.

We did ten events, four of them in the Negotino region where the Tasevskis are, and six events in Delcevo, Grdovci, Kavardaci, Pepeliste, Kriva Palanka, and Vinica and what a joy doing this, especially in the farming village of Grdovci where there is no church, and as a result of this event, a new one will come into being!

This mission that appeared at the beginning of the year to be a non-viable mission because of financial limitations, through faith and prayer became a reality, and we are thrilled. A huge thank you is due to Alan, to Jimmy Simons and his fabulous teams, to Vane and Irena Tasevski – what a privilege it has been to serve God alongside such dedicated disciples of Jesus,

Looking back to when John Grant went on a mission finding tour of Balkan countries over twenty years ago, one of these being Kosovo, then recovering from the brutal devastation of war with Serbia, it is amazing how this country has become a regular feature in the evangelistic endeavors of Affinity Missions, and in recent years, an annual outreach of fairly large proportion and with much variety across the spectrum of social categories.

Following his very good outreach in 2024, Evangelist Fane Conant from Church Stretton in Shropshire teamed up with John and our hugely capable and visionary local coordinator, Faton Berisha on Wednesday 3rd September 2025, to orchestrate yet another amazing mission to Kosovo. This mission was very "society wholistic" encompassing, including events for children, young people, families, ladies, villagers and Roma people, seven events in total with an attendance projection of 410 – 483 people came through the doors and of the guests a staggering almost 70% responded – bear in mind that this is a predominantly Muslim countryplans were put in place for a return from Affinity Missions, dates settled for the 3rd week of September 2026, the very best time for the locals – massive vote of thanks to Fane and Faton and his team.

Armenia – Sadly, our National Co-Ordinator for Armenian, Vardan Tadesvosyan called in September with the news that he was having to undergo heart surgery, and we felt led to postpone the October outreach until April 2026. We had also to postpone our other October mission, to Moldova unto next year, but are rejoicing, for out of this one outreach, we shall have two next year, to two different parts of the country.

There is so much more to report on this fruitful year, but it would take volumes, so a brief statistical report is that 3620 people were reached, all of which enjoyed a great time of food, fellowship and fun and the message that was brought to them all, the message that transforms and improves lives on a long term basis (an eternal one, no less) was embraced by 1672 persons.

A massive vote of thanks go to our church partners and supporters locally and abroad that have been a vital part in our outreaches - they share in the amazing changes to humanity in the secular sphere, and in the area that is even more important, the spiritual sphere which is an eternal one, that Affinity Missions brings.

I would like to express great appreciation to the trustees of Affinity Missions without whom these actions could not have happened, a board of wonderful volunteers operating on their own time, at their own expense to fulfill the vision. Another Board Member to acknowledge for efforts beyond normal trustee duties, is Kate Grant who has been behind the many impactful activities of Westover Beacon, as well as adding quality input to the programme abroad.

Great thanks go to Paul Scribner, who brought the Charity into life with such great generosity, then played a hugely significant ongoing role. Also to Ernest Howie, much valued Irish colleague retired but fabulously encouraging.

Section 130 of the Charities Act 2011 and Section 25 of the Affinity Missions constitution require the trustees to ensure that the accounting records of the Charity are, among other things, sufficient to show and explain all of the Charity's transactions and must, in particular, contain a record of the assets and liabilities of the Charity.

The board of trustees, as mentioned above, is comprised primarily of experienced charity executives who take reporting responsibilities seriously and thereby affirm our commitment to our beneficiaries and charitable partners because of our adopted standards for financial integrity, operational best practices, and reporting transparency.

The financial activities reported in these accounts represent the present and prior sacrifice of many, and we take this opportunity to humbly acknowledge their utmost importance to the effectiveness of this Charity.

We give honour to our Lord Jesus Christ, who planted this vision and desire in our hearts to go and impact mankind with the message of change and hope into the future,

Trustees:

Barbara Foster		Appointed 8 October 2018
John Grant	CEO & Missions Director	Appointed 8 October 2018
John Grant	Chairman	Appointed 21 May 2019
Kate Grant		Appointed 8 October 2018

As trustees of Affinity Missions, we are responsible for preparing this report for inclusion in the annual accounts. In so doing we hope that it sets out for the audience the Charity's purpose, how we work towards that purpose, and what the Charity's work has achieved.

The trustees present their annual report together with the financial statements of Affinity Missions for the year ended 31 December 2025. The trustees confirm that the Annual Report and financial statements of the Charity comply with the current statutory requirements, the requirements of the Charity's governing document and the provisions of the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" issued in October 2019.

The charity was incorporated on 28 November 2018.

Objectives and activities

Our charitable aims and objectives are to promote the efficiency and effectiveness of charities and voluntary organisations in the voluntary sector and effective application and use of their resources for the public benefit, in particular, but not exclusively by providing:

- (a) technical assistance,
- (b) attendance and response statistical calculations, and
- (c) post-event mentoring to Christian charities and Christian churches in Europe, United Kingdom and the Balkans.

Summary of the main activities

Affinity Missions partners with the following sectors in fulfilling its charitable objects

a) Churches that espouse substantially similar beliefs as set out in our statement of faith, by offering:

(i) technical assistance in undertaking the production of effective evangelistic events intended to stimulate positively all members of the church – every member or adherent is given the opportunity to invite guests to relevant social meal events together with the church members,

(ii) fulfilment of the church's role in seeking to enlighten event guests of the wider lifestyle advantages that follow adherence with the Christian faith,

For the Affinity Missions Period Ended 31 December 2025

(iii) fostering of events that bring 'community' (enhanced unity) to the local churches, which is advantageous to the local community.

b) Local Communities, by way of:

(i) humanitarian support,

(ii) starting new churches, and,

(iii) new social groups with a focus on improving the communities in which these are founded, such as forming groups from within Christian business associations, medical societies, law societies, police officers' associations, and prison reform societies.

c) National Institutions, by way of:

(i) sponsoring catalytic events for major decision makers to introduce moral and ethical excellence, consistent with our statement of faith, into their decision-making processes, and,

(ii) offering guidance, consistent with the organisation's statement of faith, in opposing aggression and radicalisation intended to undermine a country's wellbeing and peaceful co-existence.

Affinity Events

Our leadership's strategy in achieving these objectives has remained constant for over 20 years. Affinity Missions has longstanding relationships with Christian charities, Christian evangelists, and Christian churches that desire to expand the scope of their charitable outreaches. We work with a local coordinator to arrange a local 'affinity event'. These are dinners, luncheons, or teas/coffees that are free to their attendees and are normally held outside the church or charity in a neutral location such as a restaurant, coffee house, meeting hall, town center, or small theatre. The affinity events include an entertaining program intentionally designed to communicate a positive message with a relevant life application in a fun and friendly atmosphere.

Charitable Services

Affinity Missions provides technical assistance and unique know-how to these charities, evangelists, and churches that would not otherwise be able to plan, produce, market and staff an affinity event in Europe and the Balkans. These events develop or otherwise expand the charitable purposes of the local church or charity and the charitable purposes of the Affinity Missions evangelistic partner.

Affinity Missions provides technical assistance, logistical support, event preparation, event planning, event production, and response statistical calculations and post-event mentoring to these Christian charities and Christian churches in Europe and the Balkans.

Charitable Activities

Affinity Missions and its associate evangelistic partners fund their charitable activities as a ministry to and with limited financial assistance from local churches or charities

The trustees have referred to the general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aims and objectives and planning our activities and strategies and are confident that Affinity Missions meet the public benefit requirements.

Approximately 1500 volunteers were involved in the events conducted by Affinity Missions and its charitable partners in the United Kingdom and abroad.

Achievements and performance

We are thankful for an excellent and worthwhile outcome during the year, the principle activities having contributed to the achievement of our aims and objectives, far beyond what we could have expected.

Working with our charitable partners we were able to carry out three missions in North Macedonia, two in Albania, two in Moldova, and missions in Armenia, Bulgaria, Kosovo and Spain, and much activity was carried out in England.

Outcomes:

3620 people attended our affinity events abroad

2398 were guests at the events, at which

1670 responded, a 70% response rate was achieved

1140 people requested more information

1180 indicated that they would like to attend the Next Steps events to follow

255 requested a home visit

Projected attendances fell marginally (5%), but it should be borne in mind that these projections are always optimistic, and such a marginal shortfall is in reality, an over attendance of what is realistic.

Our charitable partners would not been able to carry out these events were it not for the input of Affinity Missions.

Statistical records have not been kept for the events in England, but outcomes have greatly exceeded expectations and have resulted in many changed lives and the further establishment of a church in Westover.

Trustees' Report
For Affinity Missions Year Ended 31 December 2025

Financial review

Our main performance indicators are: -

1. Abroad

- a) Number of missions organised,
- b) Attendance at affinity events during the missions organised, and
- c) Response rates at affinity events

2. In the United Kingdom

- a) Establishing events
- b) Providing framework for church planting

Because we partner with the charitable sector to bring about affinity events abroad, and to pursue charitable purposes to put into practice the Christian life locally, our financial performance is a function of the charitable income we receive from our charity partners in positive correlation to the number of missions we organise, and in correlation to the number of features we create for the prevention and relief of need, the improvement of life to facilitate the general public to evaluate Christianity

Reserves policy

It is the intention of the trustees to maintain the level of unrestricted funds of the charity to cover three months office overhead expenditure at £500 per month. In the opinion of the trustees, the charity has succeeded in this intention, having unrestricted funds available of £15,229.

The financial statements should be prepared on a going concern basis. To our knowledge, there are no internal or external factors that will significantly prevent us from achieving our future objectives.

Principal risks and uncertainties

As the trustees of Affinity Missions look to the future with expectancy, they have the responsibility to attempt to identify risks facing the charity. The trustees have identified the risks listed below and have committed to take steps to further monitor such risks during 2025, as follows:

- a) Safeguarding (failure to protect staff and/or charitable partners in the countries where we operate),
- b) Security (security risks or compliance risks leading to poor delivery of services in the countries where we operate),
- c) Fundraising (income uncertainty due to limited operating history and current Covid crisis) and
- d) Succession (a clear plan for staffing the charity for the future, due to the age of our chief executive and uncertainties because of Covid impact on growth).
