TRUSTEES' REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 5 APRIL 2024

The trustee present their report and accounts for the year ended 5 April 2024.

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in note 1 to the accounts and comply with the charity's [governing document], the Charities Act 2011 and the Statement of Recommended Practice, "Accounting and Reporting by Charities", issued in March 2005.

Structure, governance and management

The charity was established by a charitable trust deed on .30 May 2018.

The trustee who served during the year were:

Mr Martin Huckerby

Alexis Webster

Lucy Bowden

Mr Harry Burchill

(Appointed 7 January 2024)

The trustee has assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate exposure to the major risks.

Objectives and activities

The charity's objects are:

To provide Education for children in impoverished areas of the world who would otherwise receive no schooling;

To enable this by providing funds to charitable organisations in those areas;

To build and equip schools, and where necessary, to meet part or all of the running costs of those schools;

To provide in special circumstances financial assistance to communities within which these schools are located, where such assistance is for the purpose of enabling the continuing education of the children.

The policies adopted in furtherance of these objects are at the discretion of the trustees and there has been no change in these during the year.

The trustee have paid due regard to guidance issued by the Charity Commission in deciding what activities the charity should undertake.

Achievements and performance

The board of trustees are satisfied with its achievements and performance during the year.

Work has been proceeding satisfactorily on the new school in Nepal, at Payunswara (detailed in the report for 2022-2023), though the organisers, the New Zealand-based First Steps Himalaya, have had to surmount considerable physical problems posed by the remoteness of the village.

Meanwhile, we have pressed ahead with further projects in Nepal, working this time with the UK-based Pahar Trust (which originated in the Isle of Man).

The initial project with them is to rebuild the earthquake-damaged premises of the secondary school at Tangting, in the hills to the north of Pokhara. The Shree Himalaya Milan Secondary School provides education for around 100 pupils, up to the age of 16.

The damaged first floor of the existing building was to be replaced with a new pre-fabricated steel framed floor, while the existing ground floor was to be refurbished and reinforced to provide greater earthquake resilience.

The Trust donated £24,000, almost half of the estimated costs (the local community and the municipality between them provided 40% of the costs; Maidstone Girls Grammar School also contributed).

The work has been progressing according to schedule.

At the Annual General Meeting (held at 83 Tooley Street, London SE1 2TF) on January 7, one of our trustees, Lex Webster, decided to support a further project with Pahar, on a more ambitious scale than our Trust had contemplated on its own. He and a friend and colleague Ali Cashmore, have jointly funded a new building for the Shree Jana Jibraj Sushila Secondary School at Jhimpa, Baglung District. A much larger school, it has over 300 pupils in the basic primary level, and around 60 in higher grades.

They have providing a total of £60,510, with a further £20,000 coming from the local community and the municipality.

Like Tangting, the building was damaged by the 2015 earthquake and was in such a poor condition that it is being demolished and replaced by a new six-room building, on two floors. Constuction work has been proceeding apace.

In India, the problems with sending funds to the Maoyang school, in Manipur state – reported last year – were resolved during this period, though the money (£9467) for the 2023 annual running costs did not reach the school until the summer; happily, the local organisers, the SACSAS charity, were able to ensure that the children's education continued without interruption.

Later in the financial year, a further £9167 was sent to cover the running costs of the school for the calendar year 2024.

Only a minimal amount was left in the Trust's bank account at the end of the financial year, but more money will be pumped in before the next outgoings are due.

Financial review

The trust recorded a deficit from its activities for the year in the sum of £ 6,565

It received income totalling £106,760 and its expenses came to £113,325 in the year.

The unrestricted reserve fund brought forward from last year, £13,316 is reduced to £6,751 as a result of deficit from its activities in the year.

Income tax recoverable in relation to donations received under Gift Aid or deeds of covenant is recognised in the year of receiving the the donation.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEE OF THE HUCKERBY TRUST

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 5 April 2024, which are set out on pages 4 to 7.

Respective responsibilities of trustee and examiner

The charity's trustee are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustee consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- (i) examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- (ii) to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- (iii) to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (a) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - (i) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
 - (ii) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act;have not been met; or
- (b) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

THE HUCKERBY TRUST

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 5 APRIL 2023

Achievements and performance

The board of trustees are satisfied with its achievements and performance during the year.

The trust's grant giving, to provide education to impoverished rural communities in south Asia, was impacted by changes in Indian government policy. The Modi government restrictions on foreign donations to Indian NGOs placed increasing obstacles to support for needy communities. Major charities such as Oxfam, Amnesty and Mother Teresa's had their licences to receive international support suspended, while smaller charities faced problems in renewing their FCRA registrations.

The trust's long-standing support for the school at Maoyang in Manipur state (which was originally built with Huckerby money) was interrupted. Funds to meet the annual running costs had previously been sent via the State Bank of India in Imphal; under the new rules, all donations had to go via the SBI in New Delhi, which soon created difficulties. The payment of over £9000 for 2023 was rejected by the bank, leaving the teachers unpaid. Further attempts to transfer the funds brought no resolution before the end of the financial year.

In this situation, the trustees agreed to look further afield for places with communities which had no educational facilities. Study of neighbouring Nepal showed a widespread need for primary schools to serve illiterate communities in remote rural locations.

After examining the organisation and track record of smaller charities operating in this field, the trust approached First Steps Himalaya. The New Zealand-based charity (co-founded by a British activist) operates with a local partner, First Steps Nepal, and has constructed a series of thriving schools; it aims to introduce modern teaching methods, and has set up a teacher-training centre which also takes trainees from other charities.

Our initial project, funded during the year, was at Payunswara, a small village in the high hills north of Kathmandu, where most of the population are illiterate. It is using an innovative earthbag type of construction (which offers flexibility in earthquakes, sadly common in Nepal) and includes volunteers from an NZ construction firm.

The trust has donated £31,000 (part of the costs has been met by labour and materials provided by the community) and completion is on course for 2023-24. The establishment will also serve a neighbouring village, with 60+ pupils overall.

The trust was also looking into other Nepal school-building charities which could be suitable for support.

At the annual general meeting (held 2023 at 18 Berwick Street, London W1 0PX), as well as the planning on future projects, a new associate was added to the trust's team: Harry Burchill, a lifelong friend of the chair.

Financial review

The trust recorded a surplus from its activities for the year in the sum of £ 6,783

It received income totalling £39,001 and its expenses came to £32,218 in the year.

The unrestricted reserve fund for the year increased to £13,316 as a result of the surplus of £6,783 in the year,

Income tax recoverable in relation to donations received under Gift Aid or deeds of covenant is recognised at the time of the donation.
