

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 18th June 2024 To 17th June 2025

Charity name: The New Arc Ministries

Charity registration number: 1181112

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The New Arc Ministries is to work with and cooperate with Reverend Audrey Hope Francis and the leadership who are in office in promoting the mission of the church to its congregants and community.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	As such The New Arc Ministries is committed to enable as many people as possible to develop personally, support the community through promoting cohesion, personal well-being and supporting their families holistically. To allow as many members of the community as possible to worship together and build a sense of community. Projects are aimed at inviting experienced people in their field of expertise to help develop and train individuals in areas of race and equality, well-being and welfare. We have been able to hold events in the community centre to foster stronger relationship with our community. The events include a community Mother's Day and Father's Day, including give aways, food and fellowship. We have a youth summer program and family activities in the park. We continue to run wellbeing workshops for men and lady's empowerment event that has been widely advertise to our community. We are seeing attendance rise by 10% this year and good attendance from the local community to our family outreach park events for the community to approximately 800 people . We have continued to build a good relationship with the community, mission groups, community centre groups and committee and its staff, We are supporting and creating events that are of shared interest between groups in the area with some further afield. Our local Pastor meet-up and prayer for our community has evolved this year and engages the support of the City Missions. We continue to work in partnership with all those mentioned in the community so we can reach more people in the community with our mission. We continue to develop relationships with London City Missions, Evangelical Alliance and Churches together to also ensure we can meet the needs of the community. This all helps us to have a greater reach to our community. We continue to deliver online teaching events, and this has also continue to prove a worthwhile and productive way of engaging members, those who are shut in or unwell and need care at home.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	When planning our activities for the year, the Pastor, Trustees and leaders of the New Arc Ministries have considered the Commission's guidance on public benefit and the guidance on charities for the advancement of religion. We support all those in the community that seek our services in prayer, bible study, or fellowship at our community events and activities as mentioned. Our online bible studies and training have been made available to the public by publicly posting the event details on social media and we have seen really good support and positive comments as a result.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The New Arc Ministries continue to offer a range of services with improving attendance/ greatly surprised to see attendance. Working with other community organisations to share good practice and skills. Our Christmas Community Outreach event was an extreme success with over 85 people in attendance. Many have commented on how much they have learned from our programs, and we continue to be responsive to the needs of our community. We run our Alpha groups and have attendances from 10 and above weekly. All our events have seen positive comments from the community at large. Our regular services are open to all, and each week we get visitors from the area who give very positive feedback.
