Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The purposes of the CIO are to carry out activities which act as a resource for young people up to the age of 18 living in Hull and the East Riding of Yorkshire by providing advice and assistance and the organizing of programmes of physical activities as a means of: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(A) Advancing in life and helping young people by developing their skills, capacities, and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as independent, mature, and responsible individuals.(B) Advancing Education(C) Relieving Unemployment(D) Providing recreational and leisure time activity in the interests of social welfare for people living in the area of benefit who have need by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disability, poverty or social and economic circumstances with a view to improving the conditions of life of such persons. Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the CIO for the purposes which are not charitable in accordance with section 7 of the charities and trustee investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and Section 2 of the charities act (Northern Ireland) 2008.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	City Stars Foundation is a small, registered charity that aims to use childrens interest in football and sports in general , mixed with their own notoriety from being former sports stars, to inspire and motivate children to be fitter, healthier, and stronger and to help them raise their expectations so that, working with schools, we can prevent or reverse some of the many problems children living in Hull face. We offer bespoke programmes which are innovative and engaging and support the wider educational development of children.

		We provide a safe and professional environment where children with a range of disabilities can try a wide range of sports, learn about the fundamental skills and rules required within different sports and develop their skills further.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	All charity trustees have had regard to the commission's public benefit guidance when exercising any powers or duties to which the guidance is/was relevant.
