Report of the trustees for the year ending 31 March 2022

The trustees (who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act) are pleased to present their annual report together with the consolidated financial statements of the charity for the year ending 31 March 2022, which are also prepared to meet the requirements for a directors' report and accounts for Companies Act purposes.

The financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Companies Act 2006, the Memorandum and Articles of Association, and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015).

Objectives and activities

The purposes of the charity are:

to advance the education and preservation and protection of mental health among children, young people and adults, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing by the provision of:

- a) therapeutic support to children and young people in schools;*
- b) support to families and carers of such children;*
- c) training for teachers and support staff to enable them to identify and address issues of mental health in schools; and*
- d) therapeutic support for persons suffering from bereavement or loss.*

Our primary objective for the year was to continue to provide a high-quality offer of dramatherapy that would work with primary schools to provide a timely and targeted intervention for children exhibiting concerns about their mental health and well-being.

To deliver our objective we have commissioned a team of experienced dramatherapists, each qualified to Master's degree level and regulated by the Health and Care Professions Council. We have ensured that all have up-to-date training in safeguarding.

In setting objectives and planning for activities, the trustees have given due consideration to general guidance published by the charity commission relating to public benefit and in particular to its supplementary public benefit guidance.

Achievement and performance

This has been another challenging year. Schools have required therapist to support staff as they have been experiencing anxiety and stress. For some of the children and young people who are clients they continue to find their therapeutic engagement a safe space that allows them to creatively process, express and share what is troubling them. Our annual data underpinned by Psychlops, an evaluation from Kings College London that measures outcomes, demonstrates that Bennu's service is outstanding. As Bennu continues to grow its focus has been to develop its social media and to explore recruiting students to lead to a paid contract. The advisory committee now stands with 14 strong people made up of clinicians including NHS practitioners, senior leadership in education and artists. Their role has been to support Bennu offering sound and quality advice to develop its practice as it moves forward.

Financial review

This is the charity's fourth year of operation and the trustees have looked to ensure that programmes are capable of providing a high quality intervention that is valued by schools and affordable. Contracts with schools have ensured that finance has been available to commission therapists to deliver our objectives.

Principal funding sources

Our funding this year has been through contracts with schools.

Reserves policy

The trustees have considered the need for reserves in light of the main risks to the organisation. Therapists are engaged on contracts for service and as such are not employees. Each contract for service is aligned to a school contract. This approach means that financial risks are mitigated and the need to hold significant reserves to deal with any liabilities is unnecessary. However, the trustees are keen to build reserves in order that they can use these for any short-term work with children that schools are unable to fund.

Details of Any Funds Materially in Deficit

The trustees declare that the charity had no funds which were materially in deficit at the date of the statement of assets & liabilities.

Going Concern

After making appropriate enquiries, the trustees have a reasonable expectation that the charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. For this reason, they continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the financial statements. The charity has taken account of the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on assessing its sufficiency of resources.

Structure, governance and management

Governing Document and Constitution

The charity is a company limited by guarantee and is governed by its Articles of Association. Its trustees are its members. The liability of each member is limited to £10. The Articles prescribe that the number of trustees shall be not less than three but are not subject to any maximum.

Method of selection and appointment of trustees

The first trustees are those notified to Companies House as the first trustees of the charity. Any person who is willing to act as a trustee and is permitted by law and the Articles to do so, may be appointed to be a trustee by ordinary resolution or a decision of the Trustees. Apart from the first trustees, every trustee shall be appointed for an initial term of three years, renewable for a second term of three years.

Trustees Responsibilities statement

The Trustees (who are also directors of BENNU for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

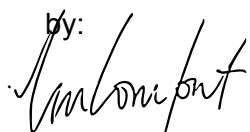

Company law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under company law the Trustees must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the charitable company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report was approved by the Trustees on 12 December 2022 and signed on their behalf

Independent Examiners Report

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 March 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law), you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ("the 2006 Act").

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited for this year under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the 2011 Act"). In carrying out my examination, I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act).

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; or
- the accounts do not accord with such records; or
- the accounts do not comply with relevant accounting requirements under section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
