NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS

For The Year Ended 20 December 2024

1 ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1.1 BASIS OF ACCOUNTING

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015); Financial Reporting Standard 102 the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102), and the Companies Act 2006.

1.2 FUND ACCOUNTING

Unrestricted funds are available for the use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity.

Restricted funds are those funds which are to be used in accordance with specific restrictions imposed by donors which have been raised by the charity for particular purposes. The cost of raising and administering such funds are charged against the specific fund.

All income is included in the statement of financial activities when the charity is entitled to the income and the amount can be Quantified with reasonable accuracy.

1.3 EXPENDITURE

Expenditure has been recognised in the accounts on an accrual basis including post balance date liabilities.

All expenditure that includes any VAT which cannot be fully recovered, and is reported as part of the expenditure to which it relates

Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

Other costs include those costs associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the charity and include the examination fees (where applicable) and costs linked to the strategic management of the charity.

All costs are allocated between the expenditure categories of the SOFA on a basis designed to reflect the use of the resource. Costs relating to a particular activity are allocated directly, others are apportioned on an appropriate basis as seen by the Trustees.

Charitable objects

The objects of the CIO are:

(A) To preserve and protect the mental health and wellbeing of people who have been or are being bullied or are being bullied or who are at risk of being by bullying, in particular but not exclusively by:

- I) The provision of anti-bullying programmes and one to one counselling sessions
- ii) Raising awareness and understanding of the effects of bullying.

(B) To advance such other charitable purposes (according to the law of England and Wales) as the trustees see fit from time to time, in particular but not exclusively by making grants to other charities and Non-Government Organisations which promote the health and well-being of children and adults.

Activities And Achievements

During the year operation, the Organisation provided helps to many people and achieved objectives set out by the charity.

COVID 19

As the result of COVID-19, lockdown took place, the charity carried on as best as possible. This year increase in incomes & expenditures were related to recovery after the effect of COVID.

Finance

The Charity has managed to raise funds and paid out to support people in need and paid for external consultants and the running costs of the organisation resulting in a surplus during this financial year.

Reserve Policy

The Trustees maintain reserve at a level which permits provision for help and support people in need at an appropriate level from the first year on.

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS

For The Year Ended 20 December 2021

1 ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1.1 BASIS OF ACCOUNTING

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015); Financial Reporting Standard 102 the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102), and the Companies Act 2006.

1.2 FUND ACCOUNTING

Unrestricted funds are available for the use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity.

Restricted funds are those funds which are to be used in accordance with specific restrictions imposed by donors which have been raised by the charity for particular purposes. The cost of raising and administering such funds are charged against the specific fund.

All income is included in the statement of financial activities when the charity is entitled to the income and the amount can be Quantified with reasonable accuracy.

1.3 EXPENDITURE

Expenditure has been recognised in the accounts on an accrual basis including post balance date liabilities.

All expenditure that includes any VAT which cannot be fully recovered, and is reported as part of the expenditure to which it relates

Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

Other costs include those costs associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the charity and include the examination fees (where applicable) and costs linked to the strategic management of the charity.

All costs are allocated between the expenditure categories of the SOFA on a basis designed to reflect the use of the resource. Costs relating to a particular activity are allocated directly, others are apportioned on an appropriate basis as seen by the Trustees.
