Ensuring our work delivers our aims.

We review our aims, objectives, and activities each year. This review looks at what we achieved and the outcomes of our work in the previous 12 months. The review looks at the success of each key activity and the benefits they have brought to those groups of people we are set up to help.

The review also helps us ensure our aims, objectives and activities remain focused on our stated purposes. We have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aim and objectives and in planning our future activities. In particular, the trustees consider how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives they have set.

The focus of our work

Our main objectives for the year continued to be the advancement of the Christian religion and to strive to improve the living condition of the needy. The strategies we applied to meet these objectives included:

1. Provision of weekly church services on Wednesdays and Sundays to minister to the physical, spiritual, emotional, and material needs of the congregation and the community.
2. Provision of special events and meetings to meet the specific needs of target groups in the church such as men, women, youth, and children.
3. Focusing on the material needs of certain members undergoing difficult financial situations.
4. Working with other Christian agencies and churches in London to advance the preaching of the gospel.
5. Provision of pastoral care for the members and other members of the community
