Independent Examiners Report to the trustees of Kurdish Society Nottingham

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2025, which are set out on page 2.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and independent accountants

The Charity trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this period (under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- * Examine the accounts (under section 145 of the Act 2011).
- * To follow the procedures laid down in the General Direction given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiners report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Direction given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unused items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking of explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is Limited to those matters set out in the statement below:

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to our attention (other than that disclosed below):

- 1) Which gives us reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
 - * To keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act: and
 - * To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act.have been / have not been met ; or
- 2) To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
