Charity Commission

Dear Sirs,

Trustees Report - Year Ending 31st December 2023

In the last year we have still been focusing on providing sensory toy packages to children with additional needs and disabilities.

People within the local community have been accessing the service we provide and have both regular users and new.

Although only a small service we can see the benefit it has on the lives of not only the children but their caregivers too and hope to continue in the future.

Your faithfully

Tracey Hogan

Charity Commission

Dear Sirs,

Trustees Report — Year ending 31 December 2020

In the last year ending 31 December 2020 the charity has been busy using the funding from Tesco Bags of Help scheme and the National Lottery Community Fund. Our main focus has been hiring out sensory toys to children with additional needs and disabilities. This has been extremely successful and have been contacted and recommended by outside agencies.

Our social media platform has been used as an online forum where advice and support is offered, this is something we hope to expand and develop in the future.

The charity hopes to increase the value of its donations every year it becomes more established.

Your faithfully,

Tracey Hogan
