Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The object(s) of The Errol McKellar Foundation are: the advancement of health and the saving of lives by creating greater awareness of the dangers and issues of prostate cancer amongst men in England and Wales and the promotion of the need for regular health and prostate cancer PSA tests in particular but not exclusively for men over the age of 45.

1 in 8 men in the UK will develop prostate cancer and that rises to 1 in 4 men from a black African and/or Caribbean background.

The charity will especially, but not exclusively, aim to reach and speak to men from ethnically diverse backgrounds by acting as a resource for men in England and Wales, in particular but not exclusively, over the age of 45:

(a)By men who have survive prostate cancer giving educational talks and speeches to a wide variety of men and their families, friends and colleagues in all parts of England and Wales by drawing upon their own experience of prostate cancer and how it affected their lives.

(b)By encouraging men to “MOT Yourself” by being more aware of their wider health issues and getting regular checks and tests at their GP, especially for prostate cancer.

(c)By speaking at meetings set up by corporate partners and sponsors at their request to educate their staff and colleagues about prostate cancer.

(d)By proactively arranging to speak with men in disadvantaged situations in England and Wales and working closely with community organisations that may include multi-faith groups and churches, prisons, sports clubs and homeless organisations to try and ensure that all men are given the right information and education about prostate cancer, regardless of their circumstances or location.

(e)To reach out to men who may otherwise not have known about the dangers of prostate cancer.

(f)To work with the charity’s well known ambassadors and a wide range of media and social media to spread awareness of the charity and it’s activities and objects.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

In addition, we have started our Sit & Talk Prostate Cancer Support Groups in Walthamstow, East London and in Edmonton, North London.

The New Testament Church of God in Edmonton have again donated their community space in Edmonton to host our support groups, usually held on the first Friday of most months.

The Foundation hosts Walk & Talk Prostate Cancer 5K Charity Walks held at Gladstone Park in Brent, North East London and Brockwell Park in Lambeth, South London.

The Foundation has been approached by several larger organisations to deliver presentations to their workforce thus continually raising the awareness of prostate cancer and prostate related issues.

The charity continues to raise awareness via appearances on community radio, local media, televisions and presentations at businesses and events and webinars.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended DD / MM / YYYY.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

[The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [insert name of applicable listed body]]. Delete [] if not applicable.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
