Please complete this note events (not requiring adjustment to the accounts) have occurred after the end of the reporting period but before the accounts are authorised which relate to conditions that arose after the end of the reporting period.

	This year	Last year
Please provide details of the nature of the event	The ongoing financial crises is having a significant impact on disposable income and donations received. Costs have significantly increased e.g transport cost, overall cost of holding fundraising events so much that it has curtailed the work of the charity so as not to get into debt.	The global pandemic has continued to impact the charity's activities particularly as pertains to fund raising. However, things are slowly starting to pick up again and the board is hopeful that it will be able to resume fundraising activities gradually from a strong position of which
Provide an estimate of the financial effect of the event or a statement that such an estimate cannot be made	It is difficult to estimate the cost of significantly reducing the charity's activity to beneficiaries due to the vast nature of the need in Africa.	The charity has been unable to have its fundraising activities which means it has been unable to commit to urgent need by its beneficiaries. The cost of this to its beneficiaries cannot be estimated at the moment.

Note 29	Additional Disclosures
The following are significant matters which are not covered in other notes and need to be included to provide a proper understanding of the accounts. If there is insufficient room here, please add a separate sheet.
The charity is slowly and gradually making a recovery to resume normal charitable activities. New donations have started to trickle back in and a significant donation was received through a volunteer who raised £828.87 running the London Marathon. We hope to nurture this relationship and seek other volunteers taking part in similar national events . Due to continued rising costs the charity continues in its stance not to hold a major fundraising event but to continue pledging one off commitments to its beneficiaries with it's current unrestricted funds and continue to spread awareness of the charity's work through its website and by word of mouth. A key challenge at the moment is trying to recruit new volunteers to help both with fundraising and the charity's social media presence. While the pandemic has caused a lot of disruption in fundraising &amp; significant interventions, it has also opened up new opportunities such as possible new income streams (Gaming without borders). This is something the trustees are doing more research into.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

	SORP reference
Policy on grant making (The charity's grant policy is summarised as for the benefit of this report):	The trustees translate the above objects into the following aim: To provide key resources needed either financial or material to enable children to break out of the poverty cycle to live a fulfilling life and achieve their potential. This will be done either directly by the charity or indirectly through local partners for service delivery and capacity building in their countries. Trustees' Priorities that pertain to this policy Consistent with our strategy and objectives for the next 5 years and priorities are in this order as agreed by the board: To work only with partners that have been vetted and approached directly by JWCA. (The charity does not run a public application system). To partner and collaborate with local agencies that work with disadvantaged and vulnerable children where the charity can make the biggest impact. The provision of financial assistance in order to support schools, orphanages, and other local agencies in various projects for provision of food, shelter and clothing in Africa and UK. What we will support JWCA mainly work by identifying and approaching (through research), appropriate local organisations in line with its objectives and priorities to support (see above) in Africa and the UK. Once identified, the charity will interview the organisation and seek evidence of its beneficiaries. Based on this, a decision will be made as to what aspect the charity can support and the scope of that support. The Trustees believe its objects provide considerable scope for expanding the charity's activities, and a great deal of flexibility in the type of programs it can support. JWCA will support children's needs required that fall under the umbrella of Education, Shelter, food &amp; clothing &amp; health needs. In identifying appropriate causes to support, the charity will give general preference to working directly with organisations (e.g orphanages or schools): Where there is little or no other access to substantial help Where there is a reasonable number of children involved in order for the charity's contribution to make a greater impact Such Interventions as to make measuring direct outcomes simple. The charity gradually works towards shaping its support in a more focussed area in order to specialise its services and will therefore prioritise such identified needs, all other things being equal. Our strong preference is to work with organisations who are prepared to undertake the necessary casework and assessments of their area of need. Jacobs Well Child Africa is a small charity and as such has limited manpower. Therefore it aims to work with organisations that can provide a robust assessment of what their need is and report these to the charity.

	In future, the Trustees may consider supporting an appropriate organisation which approaches the charity for help, providing the proposal falls within the charity's Objects (see above), however we do not have resources to support this yet. Requests for assistance must, however, always be supported with realistic costings and a clear explanation of what the project is intended to achieve and how that fits with the charity's priorities outlined above in order for JWCA to partner. JWCA offers some grants. Types of Grants We Will Award: When considering helping our beneficiaries through financial assistance it can be in the form of: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A one-off grant e.g. for furnishings for a new children's home or school, assistance with school uniforms. (These are just examples).</li> <li>A continuing regular grant based on agreed intervals e.g. annual payment for a building lease, or termly school fees, monthly groceries for an orphanage. Such grants will be agreed on a short-term commitment depending on the need requirements. Trustees will agree a clear end date in order to protect the ability to support existing beneficiaries and limit liability. The agreement can however be renewed with a new end date. We will also try to be flexible in the type of support we offer partners.</li> <li>Grants for health projects e.g. Mental health support, other general health programmes for beneficiaries.</li> </ol>

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	In line with the year objectives for 2023 – The charity achieved the following:	JWCA raised awareness through talks about the plight of vulnerable children focussing on Nigeria and Kenya. Photos and videos of previous interventions were shared to communicate how meaningful every donations is no matter how small. The charity is beginning to recover from the drought in donations caused by the pandemic and received a significant donation of £828.87 by a single donation raised by a donor who ran the London marathon. The charity was able to help 203 children in Kenya through 'Action in Focus, Kenya' across 2 separate orphanages/schools. Both were in desperate need of food caused by the ongoing drought in Kenya that had decimated cattle and crops across the country. The food was purchased within days of receiving the grant and delivered to the children. Both orphanages have sent videos and photos (viewable on www.jacobswellchild.org) expressing their delight and gratitude for the food. JWCA is very encouraged by the impact made.

A description of the principal risks facing the charity		Financial risk: Current Recession continues to impact on public donations negatively. Funding from Government &amp; Foundation trusts have been reduced for NGOs working internationally. Partnership risk: The charity has little control over how it's partners may respond to the current financial crisis that will affect beneficiaries. JWCA continues to invest time in researching potential/ideal partners to collaborate with to ensure credibility of partners and the reputation of the charity Transaction risk: Foreign exchange rate fluctuations: The recent lull in the strength of the pound means donations won't stretch as far as they could have a year ago. Meaning less money. The charity only does transactions through the bank especially where a grant is being paid abroad. It relies on bank rates. Grants will usually be paid via the bank in dollars or Sterling to mitigate against local currency fluctuations. Terrorism/fraud: JWCA follows due diligence procedures in identifying and screening donors. Suspicious donations will be cross checked under the prescribed UK terrorism list. Trustees also attend training offered to charities that address fraud internationally and money laundering. Bribery &amp; Corruption: JWCA ensure all payments go through the banking system to establish an audit trail. The charity has a policy against bribery that all trustees are fully aware of. No grants will be awarded on the basis of 'gifts' be it financial or otherwise.

		Currency Conversion: Due diligence must be taken in ensuring the correct currency is used in transferring money overseas as an incorrect currency could lead to loss of money. Trustees must never embark on international money transfers without double checking the currency type the partners account is in. The exchange rate: The value of the pound has fallen against the dollar and the Euro due to tax cuts in Britain. This means the charity's donations are servicing less than they would have in previous years.
Other		Global Pandemic: The pact of the pandemic continues. This means an even higher demand for the charity's services whilst funding has decreased. The charity is being very careful in taking on commitments to weather this particular storm and is only offering funding support for one off services until funding improves.
