Objects and activities of the charity

The purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document

The object of the CIO is, for the public benefit, to further such exclusively charitable purposes according to the law of England and Wales as the Charity Trustees in their absolute discretion from time to time determine.

The main activities undertaken in relation to those purposes during the period

The charity aims to carry out its purpose by

- making grants to individuals, organisations and other charities within its purposes
- making available a minibus

During the period, the charity made available a minibus. No grants were made.

The main activities undertaken during the period to further the charity's purpose for the public benefit

During the period, the charity made available a minibus which provided benefit to other charitable organisations and no grants were made.

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit in managing the activities of the charity.

The main achievements and performance of the charity during the period

During the year the charity's minibus was used by four different charitable organisations for a total of 10 trips. No grants were made in the period.

Fundraising activities during the year

The charity relies on donations from individuals and organisations both in terms of grant aid and also for the use of the minibus. There have been no fundraising activities.

The difference the charity's performance during the year has made to the beneficiaries of the charity and the benefit to wider society

The use of the minibus by charitable organisations has enabled them to further their purposes by

- Organising trips and events at lower cost for their beneficiaries
- Organising trips and events which would not have otherwise been made had the minibus not been available.

Structure, governance and management of the charity

The methods used to recruit and appoint new charity trustees

The Trustees consider recruitment of new Trustees as the need arises.

Potential trustees would be provided with information about the organisation, its activities and objectives, roles and expectations of Trustees plus other supporting information.

A new Trustee would be provided with information on the activities and finances of the charity, together with Charity Commission guidance and codes of conduct related to the roles and responsibilities of Trustees.

The charity's financial position at the end of the period to 31 December 2024

The financial position of the charity at 31 December 2024, as more fully detailed in the accounts, can be summarised as follows:

	2024	2023
Net income	£548	(£65)
Funds of the charity
Unrestricted Revenue Funds available for the general purposes of the charity	£552	£4
Total unrestricted funds	£552	£4
Total restricted funds	Nil	Nil

The trustees confirm, in accordance with the Charitable Incorporated Organisations (General) Regulations 2012, that at year end the CIO did not have any outstanding guarantees to third parties nor any debts secured on assets of the CIO.

Financial review of the position at the reporting date, 31 December 2024

The trustees note the financial performance by the charity during the period giving rise to a surplus of £558 leading to funds at the end of the period of £552.

The trustees consider the financial performance by the charity during the period to have been satisfactory.

Policies on reserves

It is the policy of the trustees to build reserves to provide for the maintenance and ultimately replacement of the minibus. Whilst the reserves are current nil, the trustees expect to build them over time.

Availability and adequacy of assets of each of the funds

The trustees are satisfied that the charity's assets in each fund are available and adequate to fulfil its obligations in respect of each fund.

Approval of this report

This report was approved by resolution of the trustees on 15 February 2025.
