Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To advance, improve, develop and maintain public education in, and appreciation of, the art and science of music in all its aspects by any means the trustees see fit, including through the presentation of public concerts and recitals
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The Holborn Community Orchestra is dedicated to organising accessible events, and building a community around love for music. All profits are re-invested in the orchestra, to improve and increase the opportunities for people to come together and play. Our musicians are of a range of backgrounds and levels, with ages ranging from 20s to 60s and diverse tastes in genres. We build on this diversity to form an open-minded, collaborative and inspiring amateur orchestra, which supports everyone of us in fulfilling their creative potential. Our events are designed to be accessible and affordable to most, and we welcome audiences of all ages and backgrounds to our performances.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The Holborn Community Orchestra is run by four trustees who are dedicated to help the charity deliver on its public benefit purpose. We are constantly looking for new ways of reaching out to new musicians and audiences to grow our community further, and of keeping our costs low to remain affordable to members and concert attendees.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	In 2024, HCO had to find a new conductor following the move of our existing one. After a term with one who wasn't a proper fit, we successfully onboarded one. This was a big change for us and meant we lost a bit of attendance from members, and disrupted our usual concert cadence. We still managed to perform ambitious programming, and delivered 3 performances in the year.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	In 2024, HCO made a small loss of £247, as a result of increased concert costs (hired musicians, venues and equipment) and smaller audiences. We managed to keep those losses to a minimum by increasing membership fees to £50 per term, which is more in line with our recurring rehearsal costs We end 2024 with £1.98k in cash reserves.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	Every term, the profit or loss of the orchestra is disclosed to the trustees for visibility, and at every AGM, the previous year's final result is shared with the members alongside a proposal from the trustees for how profits are suggested to be invested / losses to be funded. We aim to hold at least 2 terms' worth of cash burn to ensure our sustainability should one of our key suppliers fail us (rehearsal venue or conductor) or should income stop coming in for reasons out of our control (covid scenario). Anything on top of this minimum could be held for a specific reason (ambitious programming or audience targets, investment in equipment, etc.)
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	At the end of 2024, £1,974 was held in reserves - this is more than our 2x cash burn which feels appropriate as we start 2025 with a new conductor.
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	Not relevant
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	Not relevant
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	Not relevant
